TRADE SUPPLIED BY FREDERICK WARNE & CO., NEW YORK

A PLEA FOR SHAKESPEARE AND WHITMAN

Some findings for persons who like to do their own thinking. Boards, 62 pages, 50 cents.

"If you don't know Shakespeare or Whitman, and would like to—really—read the tiny guide which Mr. Call has written, and you will have a round-trip ticket on all lines leading to the centre of research on the uniquely united topic.—Ohio State Journal.

BOY'S BOOK ON LOGIC

A talk, not a treatise. Things in Logic that interest us, and help us to think straight. Cloth, 97 pages, 50 cents.

"The grown man or woman who overlooks it on account of the name is going to lose something valuable."—Cincinnati Star.

TEN GREAT LITTLE POEMS

Not by the old masters. Picked up adrift. Cloth, 76 pages, 50 cents.

"There is more in this tiny volume than appears on the surface or in the title page."—Minneapolis Journal.

YOU AND I AND THE STARS

A new view of the old way of telling why we are what we are. Cloth, 101 pages, 50 cents.

"A New York writer of no mean ability, Mr. William Timothy Call, is to be credited with hitting upon the first natural explanation of astral influence."—N. Y. Mail.

LIFE AS IT IS

Tragedy, laughter, and philosophy found in clippings from newspapers. Cloth, 89 pages, 50 cents.

"Out of the ordinary—and because it is, is what makes it the one book of the season worth reading."—Grand Rapids Herald.

BLACKMAIL

An episode in finesse. Cloth, 57 pages, 50 cents.

A humorous and ingenius essay to show how a crime story should be constructed."—N. Y. Sun.

THE LITTLE GRAMMAR

Original in every way—new in design, new in method, new in doctrine. Large type. Cloth, 35 pages, 50 cents.

"It epitomizes in thirty-five pages of concentrated wisdom all a boy would be expected to digest from a volume of 350 pages in the regular school course."—Albany Argus.

NEW METHOD IN MULTIPLICATION AND DIVISION

An excursion in the realm of Numbers. Cloth, 67 pages, 50 cents.

"All in all it is a curious but useful tract on numbers."—Trenton Advertiser.

SHORTHAND FOR GENERAL USE

Intended for those who would like to be able to write shorthand without hesitation, connecting one letter with another as freely as in longhand, and not be obliged to master a highly scientific treatise in order to obtain brevity and speed enough for common purposes. Paper, 36 pages, 25 cents.

"A little book. One of its great recommendations is its simplicity."—Rochester Post-Express.

RAMBLES WITH THE SWITCHER

An opening in the game of checkers. Cloth, 73 pages, 50 cents.

"It is a scientific discussion of the leading lines found in this most intricate and interesting opening, and the consensus of opinion of the leading writers and experts is given in the clear, scholarly manner which is second nature with the author. We can highly recommend the work to our readers."—Newark Sunday Call.

KBOO: The Counting Game

A scientific, historical pastime, with a past, a present, and a future. Paper, 25 pages, 25 cents.

"Among civilized people, chess and draughts can alone be classed as games of pure skill, entirely free from chance. A third game, Kboo, equally free from chance, and affording unlimited opportunity for the exercise of mental skill, is played over the whole of Africa and Southern Asia, and by the negroes of the West Indies, but seems never to have been taken up by European races."—National Geographic Magazine.

VOCABULARY OF CHECKERS

A dictionary of words, terms, and phrases used in the game called Checkers, or English Draughts. Cloth, 201 pages, $1.00.

"It is difficult to believe that so simple a game as checkers should have developed so extensive a vocabulary as Mr. William Timothy Call has gathered in 'Vocabulary of Checkers.' It fills 200 good-sized pages. The author's definitions are encyclopædic, and include a mass of interesting information about the game."—N. Y. Sun.

THE LITERATURE OF CHECKERS

A description of all the books, pamphlets, and magazines devoted to the game from 1756 to the present day; giving current value of all rare or scarce works; 227 entries. Cloth, 72 pages, $1.00.

R. D. YATES, CHECKER PLAYER

An intimate biography of the greatest of checker players; covering anecdotes, opinions, methods, triumphs, all his games in full; incidentally a history of checkers in America. Cloth, 152 pages, $1.00.

"We have rarely read so engrossing a work."—The Umpire, Manchester, England.

ELLSWORTH'S CHECKER BOOK

A book for beginners; arranged according to suggestions of the late Charles Ellsworth, the professional blind checker player. Paper, 65 pages, 25 cents.

"Contains in addition to much that is entertaining, some of the most valuable instruction on the rudiments of the game that is to be found in any treatise."—Newark Advertiser.

THE SAFE CHECKER PLAYER

Vol. I.—The Black Side. Devoted exclusively to play; showing a safe course to the player who starts the game, however his opponent may attack him at any point. Leather, vest-pocket size, 50 cents.

Vol. II.—The White Side. A companion volume; showing a safe course to the second player, however his opponent may start the game or carry out the attack. Leather, vest-pocket size, 50 cents.

"These little books contain the essence of many volumes of published play, and are invaluable as a short but thorough equipment for the practical player."—Draughts World, Glasgow, Scotland.

MIDGET PROBLEMS IN CHECKERS

All the ideas in positions of 2 vs. 2 pieces. Boards, 72 pages, 50 cents.

"There is probably no game of which a superficial knowledge is more easily acquired than checkers, yet it is capable of a profundity of which the average player is entirely ignorant."—Scientific American.

"Our Marriage Vow"

The oldest and most popular Episcopal Marriage Certificate in book form on the market.

The book contains the marriage service, marriage certificate, and pages for the family record of the contracting parties.

WHAT EVERY WARDEN AND VESTRYMAN SHOULD KNOW. By the Rev. Henry Anstice, D.D., Secretary of House of Deputies, General Convention. 32mo, cloth. 35 cents net. It is something more than a mere compilation from the canons of the Church and from the Prayer Book. Dr. Anstice makes very clear many points of civil law and of canonical and rubrical enactment that every rector and every vestryman ought to know.

WHAT EVERY ONE SHOULD KNOW BEFORE COMING TO CONFIRMATION. By Rev. G. W. Shinn, D.D. 48 pages, paper cover; 10 cents net.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHER'S CLASS-BOOK. (Hammond's.) With leaves half the width of book. Black stiff covers. 12 cents net. The peculiar merit of this Class-Book is that the names and addresses of scholars need to be written but once in the year, saving trouble and inaccuracy.

NOT CHANGED, BUT GLORIFIED. A poem from an anonymous source, but by far the most popular of its class. Printed in purple, with initial letters in red. 20 cents net.

HOLY BAPTISM. Containing the Baptismal Office from the Prayer Book, printed in large type, rubricated, with certificates of Baptism and Confirmation, the latter being a reminder to parents that the book is not complete until the child has been confirmed. THE WRITERS' LIBRARY

The twelve volumes here listed are issued in uniform size and style, printed on superior antique book paper, and handsomely and durably bound in cloth, with lettering in gold and gilt tops. Together they constitute the most helpful series of books for writers ever issued by any publisher.

The Art of Story Writing.

Esenwein and Chambers. Dr. Esenwein's latest work on Story Writing. A direct and effective guide to actual fictional narration. The chapter on plot alone is worth the price of the book to any writer. xi+211 pp. $1.35

Writing the Short-Story.

Esenwein. The standard text-book on the technique of the Short Story. Widely used in colleges and universities. A full treatise including theory, models and practice exercises in actual writing. xiv+441 pp. $1.25

Studying the Short Story.

Esenwein. A companion book to Writing the Short-Story. Sixteen short-story masterpieces, with methods for analysis. No writer and no lover of good stories can afford to miss this well-spread feast. xxxii+438 pp. $1.25

The Technique of the Mystery Story.

Carolyn Wells. With introduction by Dr. Esenwein. A complete exposition of the mystery story form. A book that stimulates insight into the methods of successful writers of plotted stories and at the same time cultivates fertility in the mind of the reader. ix+336 pp. $1.62

The Technique of Play Writing.

Charlton Andrews. Every point in play writing and play marketing is brought out with clearness. It actually takes you by the hand and shows you how to draft a plot, select your characters, construct dialogue, and handle all the mechanics of play construction. xxx+267 pp. $1.62

Writing for Vaudeville.

Brett Page. How to write the Monologue, Two-Act, Playlets, Musical Comedy, The Popular Song, etc., with nine favorite acts by Aaron Hoffman, Richard Harding Davis, Edgar Allan Woolf, and others. Hailed by the profession as the first and only complete guide. xvi.+639 pp. $2.15

Writing the Photoplay

Esenwein and Leeds. The standard text-book on photoplay construction. At one time reported by the New York City Public Library as the book second in demand, outside of fiction. ix+374 pp. Illustrated. $2.12

The Art of Versification.

Esenwein and Roberts. The most complete, practical and helpful working handbook ever issued on The Principles of Poetry and the Composition of all Forms of Verse. Clear and progressive in arrangement. Free from all unexplained technicalities. xii+310 pp. $1.62

The Art of Public Speaking.

NEW NOVELS

THE MARK OF THE BEAST. By Reginald Wright Kauffman. Author of "The House of Bondage," etc. Illustrated. Jacket in colors. $1.25 net; postage 12 cents.

Small wonder that to the descendant of "Black Devil" Ridgeley came a heritage of violence and passion. Intrenched behind that much-maligned "Southern chivalry," Cal Ridgeley played the robber baron with impunity. But when he found himself thwarthed in love, there he robbed once too often.

The book presents a bold problem, unflinchingly worked out.

AGNES OF THE BADLANDS. By J. Breckenridge Ellis. Author of "Fran," etc. Illustrated. Jacket in colors. $1.25 net; postage 12 cents.

Every city has its badlands. Such was the soil in which grew the remarkable Agnes—every bit as naive and winsome as the wonderful Fran, that other famous heroine who gave her name to another of Mr. Ellis' fascinating novels.

Agnes' life in the Badlands, her escape, and what she found at her journey's end make a most captivating story.

JUST A WOMAN. By Eugene Walter. Author of "Paid in Full," etc. Illustrated. Jacket in colors. $1.25 net; postage 12 cents.

The story of a woman who stuck. Jim Stanley did everything a man can do to estrange his wife. But through all his unfaithfulness the woman remined brave, hopeful and uncomplaining. Even the eternal triangle—as completed in the person of her husband's interesting "soul-mate"—even that did not dismay Anna Stanley.

A WOMAN OF MYSTERY. By Maurice Leblanc. Author of "Confessions of Arsene Lupin," etc. Illustrated. Jacket in colors. Price $1.25 net; postage 12 cents.

Another compelling mystery story by a past-master of the art of making people sit up o'nights to witness the unravelling of a tangled plot. No one that dotes on a good detective story can afford to miss reading this ingenious tale. Given a big country house, a locked room containing a lady's portrait, which oddly disappears, M. Lelanc has constructed a most fascinating book.

THE NATURAL LAW. By Charles Collins. Based on the Drama of Howard Hall and Charles Sumner. Illustrated. Picture Jacket. Price $1.25 net; postage 12 cents.

Shall a young girl marry a young man irrespective of his real affection for her, or a man of mature years with a comfortable bank account, who loves her for herself?

Here are many strong situations and several moving climaxes, while the moral lesson is driven deep with keen-edged words and circumstances too plain to be misunderstood.

NEW NOVELS

UNDER FIRE. By Roi Cooper Megrue. Author of "Under Cover," and co-author of "It Pays to Advertise." Illustrated. Jacket in colors. $1.25 net; postage 12 cents.

You will forget that you are you, in following the fortunes of the gallant Irishman, Larry Redmond, and his lady-love, in this novel. Often you will smile. Sometimes you will laugh aloud. Again, your heart will leap under the thrill of stirring happenings. And now and then—if you are a man—you will swallow hard, once or twice; and if you are a woman, a tear or two will come stealing down your cheek. Here is sheer romance, captured for you and imprisoned between the covers of the best book of the year.

JUVENILES

BABES IN TOYLAND. By Glen MacDonough and Anna Alice Chapin.
Based on the famous play of the same name. Many decorations and illustrations in color by Ethel Franklin Betts. Large 8vo. Cloth. Price 75 cents.

In this charming fairy story, the dolls in an old toymaker's shop come to life and have such wonderful adventures that children never tire of hearing of them.

HUMPTY DUMPTY. By Anna Alice Chapin. Many decorations and illustrations in colors by Ethel Franklin Betts. Large 8vo. Cloth. Price 75 cents

The tale of Humpty Dumpty is concerned with a boy and a girl who do not believe in fairy stories. Into their playground rolls the veritable Humpty Dumpty of Mother Goose, and introduces them to a series of marvellous adventures.

BEDTIME STORIES. By Claude Wetmore. Many illustrations in color. Price 75 cents.

A juvenile quarto size, with original pictures by Mildred L. Bailey and Theresa Jessel Jones.

A collection of wonder-stories which the author has told with much success to his own children and their little friends.

QUEEN TINY'S LITTLE PEOPLE. By Claude Wetmore. Uniform with Bedtime Stories. Price 75 cents.

A delightful fairy-story of an original sort. The book is filled with charming three-color illustrations which depict scenes from the fairy realm as discovered by some flesh-and-blood little boys and girls from Big Folk's Land.

Books by Charlotte Perkins Gilman

PUBLISHED BY THE

CHARLTON COMPANY

67 WALL STREET NEW YORK CITY

The Man-Made World. $1.00 net, cloth
Here a woman of broad Humanitarianism and world-wide reputation shows the effect on Human life of too much masculine dominance.

Moving the Mountain. $1.00 net, cloth.
A new world story, with broadly active womanhood and strangely contented men.

The Crux. $1.00 net, cloth.
This is a smooth, pleasant, natural sort of story, out of which suddenly blazes the new morality, saying "Beware of a Biological Sin: for that there is no forgiveness." It is a story expressly written for girls, yet there will be some who would by no means allow girls to have such knowledge, though it would save many.

Human Work. $1.00 net.
The Sociological theory of this book, if established, will rearrange the "dismal science" of political economy from the ground up. It gives a new base to Socialism.

Suffrage Songs. 10 cents net; $1.00 a dozen; paper.
A booklet of appropriate selected verse from Mrs. Gilman's works. Portrait of Mrs. Gilman on cover. Appeals to the head, the heart, and to believers—or unbelievers—in equal rights for women.

What Diantha Did. $1.00 net, cloth.
"What she did was to solve the domestice service problem for both mistress and maid in a southern California town; and she illustrated in her own life Mrs. Gilman's theory that a wife, mother and housekeeper can easily be also a business man."—The Survey.

The Home. $1.00 net, cloth.
The light of modern criticism here falls upon a very ancient idol, changing our blind worship to wholesome doubt of the home as an economic success.

THE FORERUNNER. Bound Volume I, $2.50 net; Bound Vols. II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, each $1.50 net.
These volumes are not merely the back numbers of a magazine, but contain Mrs. Gilman's best work from November, 1909, to December, 1916, inclusive; her social philosophy, her verse, satire, fiction, ethical teaching, and comment. She stands for Humanness in Women, and in Men; for better methods in Child-Culture; for the Home that is no Workshop; for the New Ethics, the New Economics, the New World we are making.

These two books foretold the world war, and told why the war must come; also the general results of the war or wars.

THE GRAMMAR OF ENGLISH

Since Lindley Murray there has been little improvement in English grammar. Teachers will be surprised to find here all the essentials without the useless and puzzling parts. School binding. 284 pages. 75 cents.

Pamflets

THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

Few to-day have read and fewer understood this great document. In this pamflet each item is considered honestly and boldly. In 52 pages there is enough matter for a big book. 10 cents.

WHAT IS CHRISTIANITY? WHO IS A CHRISTIAN?

For about 50 years the New Testament has been losing its hold on the churches. Mahomet has taken the place of Jesus. This essay is a defense of Jesus and Paul. 32 pages. 10 cents.

EVOLUTION AND MATERIALISM AND WHAT THEY HAVE DONE

Herein are displayed the shortcomings of "science." Darwin said he did not know, but his disciples assume that he did. It is to laugh! 32 pages. 10 cents.

CORPORATIONS AND TRADE UNIONS

He that oppresses the poor to increase his gain,
And he that gives to the rich shall come to want.
—Proverbs xxii. 16.

OFFICIAL INDEX TO STATE LEGISLATION.

A Weekly Cumulative Numerical and Subject Index of All Bills Introduced in All State Legislatures.

Compiled and Published, with the co-operation of State Libraries and Legislative Departments, under the direction of the Joint Committee on National Legislative Information Service of the National Association of State Libraries, and the American Association of Law Libraries.

This Index gives the number, date of introduction and name of introducer, subject and effect (short title) and position of every bill in every State Legislature, arranged numerically, and also a classification of all bills by subjects. It is published weekly, including all changes in position of bills and all new bills introduced during the week. Each weekly issue is complete in itself, and enables the subscriber to ascertain the subject, nature and position in any Legislature of any pending bill.

Subscription rate and Sample Sheets will be furnished on request.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS.

The complete official report of the proceedings includes the reports of all committees and the discussions thereon in full.

As all of the State Public Service, Public Utility, and Corporation Commissions, which exercise regulatory powers over all public service corporations, are members of this association, its proceedings are of the utmost importance to the public and to the corporations subject to such regulation.

The annual report of the 27th meeting, held at San Francisco, October 12-15, 1915, bound in black cloth, in one volume, uniform with previous annual reports, is furnished at the price, fixed by the association, of $2.50 per volume.

The 1914 proceedings can be furnished at the same price, but previous years are out of print.

Law Reporting Company, 74 Broadway, New York

ARBITRATIONS BETWEEN RAILROADS AND THEIR EMPLOYEES

A few sets of the official reports of proceedings in the recent arbitrations between the railroads and the engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen have been bound in law canvas, sixe 7½x10½, from copies left over from the small editions privately printed for subscribers during the hearings.

"Proceedings in the Arbitration Between Eastern Railroads and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers," July, 1912. 1214 pages, in two volumes. $20.00.

"Proceedings in the Arbitration Between Eastern Railroads and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen," March-Nov., 1913. 2744 pages, in five volumes. $50.00.

"Proceedings in the Arbitration Between Eastern Railroads and Order of Railway Conductors and Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen," Sept.-Oct., 1913. 2263 pages, in three volumes. $30.00.

"Proceedings in the Arbitration Between Western Railroads and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen," Nov., 1914,-March, 1915. 8372 pages, in nine volumes and supplements. $90.00.

Sex Hygiene Personal and Social Purity, Eugenics

PERFECT WOMANHOOD. A book for every young woman. A companion volume to Perfect Manhood. It contains vital information, counsel, inspiration, and revelation for women. It is sane, safe, simple, scientific and practical. Women have their problems as well as men. The author has, for many years, lectured to mass audiences of women, and annually to many thousands of school and college girls. Many come to him with their problems, personally or by confidential correspondence.

Every woman over fifteen years of age should have a copy of this book.

Bound in fine cloth, postpaid, 75c.

PERFECT MANHOOD. A book for every man, single or married. Over 100,000 copies ordered in advance. Recently revised, greatly enlarged and appropriately illustrated. Every sentence of this greatest of all books for men is a chaste, practical, scientific explanation of man's sexual nature.

Bound in fine cloth, postpaid, 75c.

PERFECT BOYHOOD. For every boy from ten to fifteen years of age. Contains what boys ough to know and no more. Just to the extent that prevention is better than restoration or reformation, it is wiser to place Perfect Boyhood in the hand of a twelve-year-old boy than to wait until he is a young man, and then give him Perfect Manhood. Safeguard your boy with a knowledge of himself, and, when he is a man, he will possess self-control.

Bound in paper, 20c.; cloth, postpaid, 40c.

PERFECT GIRLHOOD. For every girl from ten to fifteen years of age. Contains what girls ought to know and no more. A companion volume to Perfect Boyhood.

Many mothers do not realize the social dangers to which small girls are exposed. It is wiser to place Perfect Girlhood in the hand of a twelve-year-old girl than to wait and give her Perfect Womanhood when she is sixteen.

Bound in paper, 20c.; cloth, postpaid, 40c.

HOW TO TELL THE STORY OF LIFE. Recently revised, greatly enlarged and illustrated—simple, practical, charming.

This valuable little book is uniform in size and style with Perfect Boyhood and Perfect Girlhood, and sells at same low price.

Postpaid, paper, 20c.; cloth, 40c.

HEREDITY EXPLAINED. Every child has an incontrovertible right to be well-born. No one has a moral right to foredoom his unborn child to a life of undevelopment on the earth plane, before it sees the light of day.

Price, postpaid, fine cloth, only 75c.; bound in paper, postpaid, 30c.

STUDIES IN SOCIAL WORK

Small inexpensive publications, of interest to social workers and other students of social problems, issued from time to time.

No. 1. Social Work with Families and Individuals: A Brief Manual for Investigators. By Porter R. Lee. 16 pp. Single copies, five cents; twenty-five copies, one dollar.

Starting with the thesis that "persons who need charitable assistance are not different from other persons except in the power, or the inclination, to satisfy their own needs," Mr. Lee explains, simply and concretely, how to go about discovering the real needs and the real assets of such persons and how to help them secure a combination of circumstances which will result in self-dependence.

No. 2. Organized Charity and Industry: A Chapter from the History of the Charity Organization Society of the City of New York. By Edward T. Devine. 16 pp. Single copies five cents, twenty-five copies one dollar.

A statement prepared for the United States Commission on Industrial Relations.

No. 3. The Probation Officer at Work. By Henry W. Thurston. 24 pp. Single copies five cents, twenty-five copies one dollar.

Introducing us to Otto Wengierski at the moment when he is put under probation, Mr. Thurston builds up through his story an inspiring picture of what a good probation officer can accomplish and of the methods by which he can do his best.

No. 4. Is Social Work a Profession? By Abraham Fexner...24 pp Ten cents.

An address before the National Conference of Charities and Correction, Baltimore, 1915.

No. 5. Facts About Wage Earners. By Mary Van Kleeck. 40 pp. Twenty-five cents.

A series of diagrams and statistical tables, based upon material in the United States Census, with a brief introductory text. Adapted to class-room work in colleges and elsewhere in connection with the discussion of labor problems.

No. 6. The Section on Charity from the Shulhan Arukh. Translated by Louis Feinberg. 32 pp. Twenty-five cents.

This translation gives English readers access to the Rabbinical teachings about charity which have been authoritative among orthodox Jews from the sixteenth century to the present-day.

No. 7. Facts About the Death Rate. By Lilian Brandt. 48 pp. Twenty-five cents.

A series of diagrams with explanatory text, showing the prevailing death-rates at the present time and the decrease that has taken place in recent years.

No. 8. Facts About Tuberculosis. By Lilian Brandt. 40 pp. Twenty-five cents. (Revised edition).

Twenty-one diagrams, with brief descriptive text. The diagrams show in a logical order the more significant facts which are available about the importance of tuberculosis as a cause of death at the present time; the variations in its prevalence; and the decrease that has taken place thus far, with its interesting variations as to sex, age, and locality.

No. 9. Pauperism: An Analysis. By Edward T. Devine. 20 pp. Ten cents.

A fresh examination of an old and vexed problem, in the light of modern knowledge. A paper submitted to the Second Pan-American Scientific Congress.

A POCKET GUIDE FOR VISITORS

Fifty Benevolent and Social Institutions In and Near New York. By Mary Grace Worthington. Price twenty-five cents.

A selected list of fifty institutions representing almost as many different kinds of work; telling not only where to go, but how to get there, what is the best time for a visit, and what to look for after arrival. Suggestions are made for "tours" which economize time and effort, and outlines of points to observe on visits to different kinds of institutions are included. All this is compressed into a hundred pages of a size to slip into pocket or hand-bag.

The Science of Applied Salesmanship

In Four Volumes By J. S. KNOX

Scientific Salesmanship, both the science and the practical work of selling are handled in language that can be understood and grasped equally well by the beginner and the experienced salesman. Each book contains a vital message to both classes.

These are the texts of the Complete Course in Salesmanship offered by the Knox School and used by the largest and most aggressive Y. M. C. A.'s in the United States.

Price, $12.00 a set, in Leather binding, or $8.00 a set in Cloth binding. Carriage prepaid.

Salesmanship and Business Efficiency

By J. S. KNOX

A condensed treatise on the principles and application of scientific Salesmanship, Business Building, Man Building and Industrial Psychology. Interestingly and instructively written in terms that will fit the needs of the beginner as well as the experienced salesman. This book is used as a text in nearly 400 schools. It is used by many of the great business organizations of the country. Seven concerns bought 4,000 copies of this book for their salesmen during 1916. The book has aroused international enthusiasm. A book of information and inspiration; 295 pages. Cloth bound, per copy, $1.75, postpaid.

A Hebrew Anthology

By GEORGE ALEXANDER KOHUT

A collection of the best poems bearing on the Old Testament, culled from the writings of famous English poets, from the Elizabethan period (and earlier) to the present day.

The distinctive feature of this volume is that the authors are Christians, who have been inspired by the lofty sentiment contained in the Hebrew Bible, and have set to verse many of the ethical and narrative parts.

Some of these poems are already well known to English readers and literary students; others have been rescued from possible oblivion and are here presented in convenient form.

As a WORK OF REFERENCE alone, THE HEBREW ANTHOLOGY will take its place among the best. It will rank as a classic index to the literary treasures of Sacred Poetry.

No such volume has ever been produced. In scope, content, variety of material, arrangement, completeness and technical form, it is second to none.

IT IS A LIBRARY OF INSPIRED SONG!

Three Indices of Authors, of Subjects and of First Lines, facilitate ready reference.

Published in two volumes, royal octavo, 1400 pages.

Edition in Cloth, $5.00 Half Morocco, $7.50

The Practical Lumberman

Third Edition. Copyright 1915.

A book dealing with the merits and uses of Douglas Fir (Oregon Pine), California Redwood and leading commercial woods of the Pacific coast.

Size 4 x 6, well bound with silk cloth, stiff case; contains 256 pages of direct interest to Lumbermen, Loggers, Tallymen, Inspectors, Shipowners, Supercargoes, Stevedores or any one engaged in or contemplating entering the Domestic or Foreign Export Cargo Trade.

The opening of the Panama Canal means the expansion of the market for Douglas Fir and California Redwood, and to those desirous of obtaining reliable data on Pacific Coast Lumber, "The Practical Lumberman" can be depended upon in all respects.

FIGURING

This book is not a calculator, but explains in detail the shortest methods of figuring all kinds of squared and tapering lumber, logs, octagon spars, metrical orders, specifications, weights, water and lumber carrying capacity of all classes of vessels.

CONTENTS

An idea of the contents may be gathered from a few of the subjects treated, such as Scaling of Logs, Log Rules, Spaulding Log Scale, Kiln Drying Lumber, Silos and Silage, Wood Block Pavements. Pointers for charterers of vessels, ship's officers, supercargoes and stevedores on the correct way to load steamers with lumber. The water ballast situation and other important information known to but few experts is thoroughly explained.

The Tale of the Spinning Wheel

By

ELIZABETH C. BARNEY BUEL

State Regent, Connecticut Daughters of the American Revolution.

Illustrated by

EMILY NOYES VANDERPOEL

Author of "Color Problems" and "Chronicles of a Pioneer School."

PRESS NOTICES.

"A dainty and attractive little sketch and will be found a choice gift for the holidays."—Hartford Courant.

"'The Tale of the Spinning Wheel' is a prettily bound book containing a graciously worded paper on the art of linen and woolen manufacture as practised in New England. * * * With due reference to the antiquity of the art, Mrs. Buel weaves some pleasing details of the nearer colonial period with quotations of interest from letters and diaries."—Springfield Republican.

"The author's main idea is that the simple homeliness of the time of the spinning wheel, with all the dignity of labor which its use implied, ought not to be allowed to escape from our modern civilization. There is certainly much truth in this conception and Mrs. Buel has done a good thing in bringing it home so forcibly to her hearers and readers."—Providence Journal.

The book is an example of the artistic work of the University Press, being bound in white and gold, with design of musket and distaff. The illustrations are printed in sepia on the broad margins or let into the text, which is printed in handsome type.

Size 6⅝x9 inches; 60 pp. Price $1.00; postage additional, 7 cents.

THE FIFTEENTH OHIO VOLUNTEERS AND ITS CAMPAIGNS

War of 1861-5

By ALEXIS COPE

Captain, Fifteenth Ohio Volunteer Infantry

8vo. Bound in durable cloth. 796 pages.
Price, $5.00, postpaid.

General James H. Wilson, U. S. A., retired, the last surviving corps commander of the Civil War, and who was an important actor in some of the campaigns described in this book, says of it:

"In addition to its being the best regimental history I have ever seen, it gives a most correct and lucid account of the general operations of the armies of which it formed a part from the beginning to the end of the war. This is very unusual, and there is not a paragraph or page of the narrative but shows the most careful and conscientious study of all contemporaneous records, diaries and reports bearing upon the events of which it treats. The quotations and references abundantly support and confirm its statements and conclusions."

"FEEDS AND FEEDING"

Sixteenth Edition, Revised, Enlarged and Rewritten
BY W. A. HENRY, D. Sc., D. Agr.
Formerly Dean, College of Agriculture, University of Wisconsin, and
F. B. MORRISON, B.S.
Assistant Director, Agricultural Experiment Station, University of Wisconsin

This volume comprises about 700 pages of accurate, helpful information on the feeding of farm animals. In it the most important results of feeding trials carried on by American Experiment Stations and European scientists are presented, supplemented by the experiences of successful stockmen. Economy in stockfeeding is given especial attention.

"Feeds and Feeding" is acknowledged the most authoritative book on feeding stuffs and livestock feeding in the English language. It has been quoted as authority in the bulletins of practically all the Experiment Stations in the United States, which is true of no other book on agriculture.

The labor involved in the preparation of the book is shown by the fact that the full time of a person was required for three years merely in revising the Appendix Tables, showing the composition and nutrients in American feeding stuffs.

Though quoted as authority by the college professor, "FEEDS AND FEEDING" is so simply written that any farm boy can understand it. It is used as a text or reference book in practically all the agricultural and veterinary colleges in America and in many secondary schools. Thousands of copies have been purchased by practical farmers and stockmen.

This book may be secured postpaid at the following rates:

Poultry Guide Post

132 pp., bound artistically in dark red burlap. Retail price $1.00 postpaid. Contains over 125 attractive original drawings by the clever artist, Henry Crossman Grover.

Mr. Philip R. Park, known all over the country to thousands of poultrymen, has written "Poultry Guide Post" to explain his successful methods. In this Mr. Park shows how poultry may be profitably raised in the city backyard, on the farm, or on the exclusive poultry plant. A veritable "guide post" of successful poultry keeping, a book of charming interest, delightful reading and a recreation as well as a handbook on poultry.

Margaret Mahaney Talks About Turkeys

132 pp. 12 full-page ills. Retail price, $1.00 postpaid.

Miss Mahaney has worked wonders in raising turkeys at her home in Concord, Mass. She has accomplished what Experiment Stations said to be impossible with turkeys in New England and other harsh climates. She tells all about it in her interesting book. Others are doing just as wonderful work by following her teachings.

SCHOOL SCIENCE SERIES
John G. Coulter, Publisher, Bloomington, Ill.

REPRODUCTION By T. W. Galloway. In twenty-six assignment-unit chapters Dr. Galloway has presented this important subject in a new way; a way which will meet the need for instruction as to sex as it has not been met before. The treatment is purely biological. This is a most important contribution to the pedagogy of this subject. Pp. viii+149. Cloth bound. Illustrated. Postpaid, 60 cents.

EVOLUTION, HEREDITY AND EUGENICS By John M. Coulter and S. W. Williston. Similar in style and organization to the preceding. A very simple presentation of the great facts and principles, historically viewed, as well as with reference to their modern applications. Dr. Williston's chapters on the evolution of animals give the book the right biological balance. This book, like the foregoing, is especially designed for popular reading. Pp. viii+136. Cloth bound. Illustrated. Postpaid, 50 cents.

"Our scholars are more interested than in any other series of lessons tried by us and the teachers find it easier to hold the attention of the pupils than ever before. We all feel that we are now engaged in a real study of the Bible. We read the lessons from the Bible itself, the questions are answered from the Bible, the pupils bring their Bibles with them and become familiar with the Book, and the study of the text of the Bible is interesting to them."—Rev. E. D. Bailey, D.D.

The Analysis of Beauty

By WILLIAM HOGARTH

A REPRINT, including the plates formerly in portfolio, arranged in convenient form. Few books of this character, first issued 150 years ago, contain enough of interest and instruction for the modern reader and art student to warrant a reprint. Hogarth's rare book is an exception. It is still an authority frequently referred to and quoted by teachers and writers on art, and is the basis of many systems of instruction. This reprint has been highly commended for its convenient form and general make up.

A Remarkable Settlement of Ancient Date

Studies of some sturdy examples of the simple life, together with sketches of early colonial history of southern New Jersey.

The narrative of this unique colony of colored people—mulattoes; 200 years old; the oldest of its kind in the United States—is interestingly told with early genealogical records of the stock families of Southern New Jersey, and historical sketches of Fenwick's colony. The book occupies a place of its own among books published by colored Americans, and has been highly commended in all parts of the country.

By Wm. Steward, A.M., and Rev. Theophilus G. Steward, D.D., Chaplain U. S. Army, retired. Cloth, 237 pages, 5¾ x 9, 35 illustrations, deckle-edged paper, gilt top and gilt plate on side and back, untrimmed front. Price, net, $2.50. Order from any book dealer.

"IN THE GARDEN OF ABDULLAH AND OTHER POEMS," By ADOLPHE DANZIGER. Price 75c.; Postage 4c.
In the one hundred and twenty-eigh pages of his book, the author has shown a mastery of a variety of measures and an equal variety of thoughts, both light and serious. The opening poem, "In the Garden of Abdullah," contains a beautiful story gracefully told and thoughts that must appear absolutely new to the Anglo-Saxon reader. It breathes the spirit of the Orient, with the sprightliness of the French school.
There are some humorous poems that are exceedingly "catchy." "The Ass and the Sage," "Miracles Explained," and several others are of this sort. "After the Confession" and "The Song of Songs" are of the highest form of poetic expression.
Altogether "In the Garden of Abdullah" will prove grateful reading, and is a decidedly valuable addition to the poetic literature of our time.

Historical Genealogy of the Woodsons and Their Connections

Compiled by Henry Morton Woodson

This book is the result of nine years of extended research, patient and persistent delving among old Court House records, family Bible records and tombstone inscriptions, and octogenarian recollections.

Beginning with the immigration of Dr. John Woodson, the English Surgeon, and his wife, Sara, who came over in 1619, in the ship "George," their children and grandchildren are taken up one by one and their respective lines of descendants are traced minutely.

The record contains 5000 names of the lineal descendants, besides hundreds of others who have been in one way or another associated with them.

760 pages, 75 portraits and illustrations, cloth binding, $10; Silk, $15; Morocco, $20.

"THE BOOK REVIEW"

A Co-operative Book List for the Trade

ITS APPEAL

¶A mailing list is the live bookseller's best asset. All successful dealers recognize this fact and make it a rule to keep their customers posted each month regarding new books.

¶A large number of booksellers now use for this purpose THE BOOK REVIEW, an attractive little imprint magazine, skillfully edited and amply illustrated, prepared especially for the retail trade.

¶THE BOOK REVIEW is syndicated throughout the United States, i.e., one dealer only gets it in each city, each dealer (with the exception of a few of the very largest cities) has the exclusive circulation for his town.

¶Out of the one hundred largest cities in the United States fifty-seven are now served by THE BOOK REVIEW. This besides the booksellers in a number of smaller cities who are equally enthusiastic distributors.

THE MORAL

¶If you want to consider THE BOOK REVIEW for your city, write us at once for terms. The cost is nominal. But, we will say frankly, if you do not keep a mailing list of your customers this proposition will not appeal to you, and the few dollars it costs per year would be practically wasted.

THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Origin and Purpose.—The Academy was organized December 14, 1889, to provide a national forum for the discussion of political and social questions. The Academy does not take sides upon controverted questions, but seeks to secure and present reliable information to assist the public in forming an intelligent and accurate opinion.

Publications.—The Academy publishes annually six volumes dealing with the most prominent current social and political problems. Each volume contains from twenty to thirty papers upon the same general subject. The larger number of papers published are solicited by the Academy; they are serious discussions, not doctrinaire expressions of opinion. The Academy publications give the most comprehensive account anywhere obtainable of the political and social questions that have been before the American people during the past twenty-five years.

Meetings.—The Academy holds five scientific sessions each year during the winter months, and it also has an annual meeting in the Spring, extending over two full days and including five or six sessions. The papers of permanent value presented at the meetings are included in the Academy publications.

Membership.—Membership in the Academy may be secured by applying to the Secretary, Logan Hall, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. The membership fee is $5.00; life membership fee, $100. Members receive all the regular publications of the Academy, are invited to attend and take part in the scientific meetings, and have the privilege of applying to the Publication Board for information upon current political and social questions.

THE ANNALS OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE.

A bi-monthly periodical, sent free to members of the Academy. Each number contains about 250 pages, devoted to Leading Articles and Book Reviews. Six numbers yearly. NOTICE TO PURCHASERS

Orders. Each order should be clearly written and signed by the purchaser. It should give the post office, county, and State, and also indicate whether the goods are to be sent by mail, express, or freight; and, where the name of the railroad or express station differs from that of the post office, it should be stated.

Exact Titles. All orders should give the exact titles of the books as printed in our price lists; otherwise, we cannot be held responsible for errors in shipping. In ordering by telegraph, purchasers may use the code words given in this Price List.

Order Early. Orders are usually filled on the day on which they are received, but just before the opening of schools this is not always possible. To insure prompt delivery due allowance should be made for unavoidable detentions and orders should be sent early.

Special. We supply only our own publications. Where any of our printed books are not readily obtainable through the trade, they will be sent by us postpaid on receipt of the list prices. Postage on blank books, drawing books, blanks, and tablets will be at purchaser's expense. Books sent as ordered are not returnable. Orders for first introduction must give the names of the books to be displaced as well as those to be introduced. Keys and Translations will be supplied to teachers only.

Remittances. Each order should be accompanied by a remittance, unless the purchaser has an open account. Remittances by draft are preferred, but post office money orders or express money orders may be used, if more convenient. Purchasers who wish to open an account should apply for terms and give references showing financial ability, promptness, and general responsibility.

Mail, Parcel Post, and Express. Packages of printed books under 8 oz. may be sent at the rate of 1c. for 2 oz. Packages between 8 oz. and 50 lbs. may be sent by Parcel Post in accordance with the new zone rates, ascertainable at any post office. Packages of any weight may be sent by express. In the absence of specific instructions, we will send packages by the cheapest transportation.

THE MERRIAM SCHOOL SERIES

Webster's Secondary-School Dictionary

70,000 words and phrases. 1,000 illustrations. 864 pages, $6\frac{1}{4} \times 8\frac{5}{8}$ inches. Plain, $1.50. Indexed, $1.80.

Presents the largest number of words and phrases ever included in a school dictionary. The wide scope of its vocabulary, the clearness of its etymologies, the simplicity and accuracy of its definitions, the nicety of its synonyms and illustrative examples, and the helpfulness of its supplemental tables, have given this volume a great vogue in schools of all grades.

Webster's Elementary-School Dictionary

45,000 words and phrases. 900 illustrations. 720 pages, $5\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ inches. 90 cents.

Carefully planned to meet the needs of all the elementary grades and other schools in which etymologies are not taught. It contains all words found in the school texts generally used, and includes the technical expressions of ordinary business and words used in elementary sciences. Unusual attention is devoted to making a word's meaning clear to immature minds, especially by the use of illustrative sentences or phrases and by discriminating synonyms. Inflected forms are given when irregular.

Webster's Shorter School Dictionary

35,000 words and phrases. Fully illustrated. 544 pages, $5\frac{1}{8} \times 7$ inches. 60 cents.

Though small, this book is remarkably complete, presenting not only common words but technical and scientific terminology and up-to-date words needed by elementary pupils. It is unique among smaller dictionaries in making clear grammatical difficulties. Within its scope it is authoritative.

FOR EARLY FALL PUBLICATION

LETTERS FROM THE DOMINIE

By David de Forest Burrell

George Wood First Prize

Casting aside hide-bound conventionalities, the dominie writes to an intimate friend of the serious problems which confront him in his pastoral work. They are not the petty difficulties which pass in a night, but they savor of the tremendous questions which unless a panacea is produced shake the foundations of the churches in our land to-day. That they are in letter form makes the volume unique; that the author dares break down the curtain of stipulated form makes it unusual; that the subjects are treated with spice, earnestness and frankness makes it of compelling interest to all who are in any way interested in the continuance of the Church.

AUNT MELINDA'S PHILOSOPHY

By Ella Embery Tubbs

Dear old Aunt Melinda had had her observation glasses focussed a good long while on society in general before the majority of us had learned to see. She isn't a bit provincial, as proved by her philosophy. What she says carries a bracer with it, yet behind it all there is the humor and shrewdness which will provoke a smile on the most stately countenance.

MISS PHENA

By Flora Swetnam

Miss Phena is one of those quiet, whole-souled individuals who, when they set out to do things, do them, without whom nothing would be done, and yet who continue life as though nothing had happened. She is the leader in more than one movement toward better things in her village. It was Miss Phena who started the ball rolling for the young folks and then revived a run-down country church and ultimately had it rebuilt. You'll read it, your children will read it, then you'll want to pass it along.

PAUL THE PREACHER

By J. L. Rosser, A.B., Th.M.

George Wood Second Prize

An entirely new presentation of Paul as evinced by the actual preaching of the great Apostle to the Gentiles. The man and the preacher are necessarily combined, after which the author proceeds from Paul's preparation before and after his conversion to the intellectual, emotional and spiritual qualities, then on to the fields of labor, and finally to the universal message given by the Master's greatest preacher to all mankind. It is written with that fine sympathy so necessary to an appreciation and understanding of St. Paul and his labors. The scholarly handling of the subject with no omission of proof-texts and the clarity of presentation will make of this volume a welcome reference work, especially as it is in compact form.

WHEN THE BLIND SAW

By David de Forest Burrell

A blind beggar lad on the Bethlehem road and his friend, one of the shepherds, are the characters in this exquisite little holiday sketch. The theme begins at the time when flashes of light came to the little blind eyes as the herald angels sang of the newborn Babe, and is developed through the years of waiting to the time when both he and the Master had grown to manhood and the Master himself brought light to the darkened vision and the blinded soul.

ADAIR, WARD W.

Lure of the Iron Trail. Cloth.....*$1.00

"Like Begbie's 'Twice-Born Men,' this is a collection of tremendous stories of Christian conversion—the kind of conversion that makes foul men clean and wicked men righteous and weak men adamant against temptation. The material is all drawn from the life of railroad men. The stories are told with a swing and spirit that Begbie in his similar work has scarcely matched. And these men made over are heroes of life and Christianity out of whose history no moral need be drawn, because the moral pervades it all, first and last."—The Continent.

(c) Men of Steel. In pamphlet or loose-leaf form, .10; per dozen......80

Great men of the Old Testament form the subject of twelve lessons. In each lesson there are questions, a topic for debate, weekly thought, and a short bibliography.

(d) Outline Studies in the Book of Romans. Cloth, .40; paper......25

"This very simple analysis of the Epistle to the Romans, by reducing to orderly arrangement the themes and teaching of the book, makes a plain pathway through a part of the Bible which laymen are disposed to regard as hard to read and hard to understand."—The Continent.

(c) Wrecks and Heroes. In pamphlet or loose-leaf form, .10; per dozen.....80

A course of sixteen lessons on New Testament characters, similar in treatment to the course Men of Steel, which it may well follow.

ADAM, JOHN DOUGLAS.

(c) †Paul in Everyday Life. Thin paper, art leather .....*.50

A companion volume to the widely used "Christ in Everyday Life." Daily readings from the epistles with personal applications.

ALEXANDER, JOHN L.

Boy and the Sunday School. (BOY LIFE SERIES.) Cloth *$1.00

This volume of expert method and suggestions for leaders and teachers in the Sunday school aims to promote the better handling of the so-called boy problem. With forceful directions and practical insight it grasps the essential difficulties to be met and points the way to an effective solution by means of reconstructive work of unusual scope and significance. Bibliographies prepared for each chapter add a valuable feature to the book.

ALEXANDER, JOHN L., Editor.

Boy Training. (BOY LIFE SERIES.) A Handbook of Suggestions for Leaders of Boys .....*.75

This book is written by a group of experts having in mind the subject's all-round development. The problem of boyhood is clearly set forth and the principles of adolescence and physiological grouping are fully discussed. The boy's relation to the home, school, church and to his leisure time is treated, with reference to the actual facts of today. Following this is a constructive treatment of the normal development of the boy, physically, mentally, socially and spiritually. A chapter on the various existing organizations that are making a contribution to this work and one on the spirit of service close the book.

Sunday School and the Teens. Cloth *$1.00

The very illuminating facts and suggestions resulting from a painstaking study of the various phases of the teen age problem by the members of the Adolescent Commission appointed by the San Francisco Convention. A book that will well repay close study by everyone concerned in this difficult work.

Teens and the Rural Sunday School. Cloth .....*.50

An exhaustive study of the adolescent from the rural point of view. Sunday school organization is also dealt with from the angle of the small town and open country, the various cooperative activities in the rural field are discussed, and definite relations pointed out as regards the Sunday school, while leadership, teaching and the plans for a rural life survey receive adequate attention. The bibliography is especially valuable in its reference to these subjects.

BAKER, G. C.

Indoor Games and Socials for Boys. Cloth .....*.75

The author has gathered from many sources games that will strongly appeal to boys, at the same time having a cultural value.

BALL, W. H.

Construction of Swimming Pools.... .15

The very real dangers which may arise from the use of poorly constructed pools have led to a discussion of the whole question of indoor swimming equipment, and a thorough investigation of location, materials, lighting, drainage, etc. This pamphlet summarizes the results of this study, and is full of valuable suggestions.

Physical Department—Construction and Equipment. Cloth *$1.50

Prepared under the direction of the Physical Directors' Society of the Young Men's Christian Association. A text-book to establish standards of construction and equipment. Every feature of physical work will be dealt with and the book is profusely illustrated.

BANKS, EDGAR J.

Bible and the Spade. Cloth *$1.00

Descriptions of those discoveries which have shed a direct and wonderful light on the Bible. A book especially appropriate for the busy man, and designed to awaken interest in a deeper and more intelligent study of The Book.

BARBOUR, C. A., Editor.

Bible in the World of Today. Cloth, *.75

An up-to-date presentation of the place and power of the Bible in modern life, showing how we got our Bible, reasons why it should be studied and practical suggestions as to the methods of study. Contributions by leading Bible teachers and students of this and other countries make it a symposium of unusual value and interest just at this time when so much emphasis is being placed on and attention given to this subject.

Fellowship Hymns. Single Copies, *.45, postpaid; *$35.00 per hundred, plus carriage.

A new book prepared to meet the needs of brotherhoods, Sunday schools and the various requirements of the church. The best in words and music, rigorously chosen from the whole range of hymnology and containing absolutely no "padding."

"Beyond question the best that has been put upon the market for many, many years."—New York Christian Advocate.

Making Religion Efficient. A manual of work with men and boys. Cloth, *$1.00

"This volume preserves for us the heart of the messages delivered by the teams of specialists who led the Men and Religion Forward Movement. Here we have the whole matter boiled down and put into brief, pungent sentences. The survey charts are most valuable, and the book as a whole is a distinct contribution to the various lines of Christian activity with which it deals."—The Examiner.

Men and Religion Songs. Single copies, *.25, postpaid; *$20.00 per hundred, plus carriage.

This comprises selections from "Fellowship Hymns," especially chosen because of their suitability and popularity in meetings of men.

Principles and Methods of Religious Work for Men and Boys. (Atlantic City Edition.) Cloth .....*.75

A resultant of a conference of eighty leading specialists and secretaries of the Young Men's Christian Associations of North America. It is the successor to the Bronxville Manual which has had such a wide circulation not only in Young Men's Christian Associations but throughout the churches. This volume is larger than that which resulted from the Bronxville Conference and far more complete. It represents the very best thought as to religious work for men and boys up to the present time. No pastor, no Association secretary, and no Christian worker should be without this book.

BATEMAN, CHAS. T.

Booth, Life of General. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

This book is intended primarily for the youth whose claims received unfailing recognition from General Booth in his work for humanity; but as in even this brief survey of such a life there is much that only maturity can grasp and apply, this volume will be found as unlimited in its appeal as was the message of the universally beloved leader it describes.

BEGBIE, HAROLD.

Twice-Born Men. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid 60

A stirring portrayal of regeneration. Pres. Wm. De W. Hyde of Bowdoin College says, "It is a splendid verification of the truth and power of Christianity."

BOOTH, E. W.

(c) Good News by John. In three parts, each 15

Consecutive studies in the fourth gospel, covering a year and a half. Twenty-six lessons in each part.

BOSWORTH, E. I.

Call for Character. Boards, .25; Paper, .05; per dozen ......40

An appeal to use one's life for the highest purpose.

Can Prayer Accomplish Anything Apart from the Man Who Prays? .10; per dozen .....*.80

A fresh and stimulating presentation of prayer as the relation between friendly men and a friendly God.

(c) †Christ in Everyday Life. Thin paper, art leather .....*.50

Selected verses for daily devotional use with a paragraph of comment for suggested meditation so personally practical that it can scarcely fail, if honestly applied, to bring results. Each study is complete in itself.

(d) †New Studies in Acts. Cloth, *.50; postpaid 60

Nineteen studies of the important incidents and truths of Acts put together in clear and attractive style.

(e) †Studies in the Life of Jesus Christ. Cloth, *.50; postpaid 60

A thirty weeks' course of study in the New Testament. There are five divisions: Detailed Study up to the Last Week, chiefly according to Mark; General Survey up to the Last Week, according to Matthew; General Survey up to the Last Week, according to Luke; Detailed Study of the Last Week of Christ's Life, according to the synoptic gospels; Studies in Christ's Life, as presented in John's Gospel.

(e) †Teaching of Jesus and His Apostles. Cloth, *.50; postpaid 60

The great subjects involved in the teachings of Christ and His apostles are here considered, such as Christ's Messiahship, the Kingdom of God, the Resurrection, the Holy Spirit, Prayer, Missionary Enterprise, etc. Thirty lessons.

BRINK, B. DEANE.

Body Builder. Cloth *$1.00

A study of the contribution made by Robert J. Roberts to the development of the Physical Department of the Young Men's Christian Association through his theory, his technique, and his character. Drills and exercises given that have been successfully used for years, and health hints in Mr. Roberts' characteristic vein.

BRINK-SMITH.

Athletes of the Bible. Cloth .....*.40

An unusual series of studies of biblical characters in which the physical qualifications of the great leaders are made to emphasize the spiritual foundation of their lives, with the purpose of leading boys and young men to see that real religion is essential to efficiency and satisfaction. The impression is increased by frequent illustrations from the modern athletic world.

BROWN, JOHN, JR., M.D.

Outdoor Athletic Test for Boys. Paper .....*.20

An effort to meet the demand for a standard grading and athletic test in rural schools that will create enthusiasm for physical development of the right sort.

BROWN, JOHN RICHARD.

Jesus the Joyous Comrade. Boards, *.40

Christ is here presented as the strong leader of strong men; as one who enjoys doing hard things because he sees victory at the end. A character-building book on the order of the widely useful "Second Mile" by Harry Emerson Fosdick.

BURR, H. M.

Around the Fire. Stories of Beginnings. Library buckram .....*.75

Hero tales—splendid stories for camps and the home circle, especially appropriate for the librarian's "story hour."

Calling of Boyman. Boards .....*.50

The vividly told story of a young man's religious development and the experiences which influenced his choice of a career.

BUTTERFIELD, KENYON L.

Call of the Country Parish. .10; per dozen .....*.80

A clear, forceful statement of the present crisis in our rural religious and social life, and a strong appeal for the leadership of the best qualified men as none too efficient for the difficult task of making life in rural communities happy and effective.

CHELEY, F. H.

Told by the Camp Fire. Cloth .....*.75

Tales of camp life in the Rocky Mountains, full of exciting adventure of a novel sort, and with a refreshing sparkle of humor. Manly qualities are appreciated in a way that is fascinating and helpful to boys. A fine book for the home, boys' clubs and at camp.

CHELEY-BAKER.

Camp and Outing Activities. Buckram *$1.50

Any leader who has had a camp go "flat" will appreciate the value of this wealth of social, athletic and religious activities for boys in camp. From this series of games, stunts, songs, plays, nature study, Bible study, etc., the busy leader will have no difficulty in arranging a program for either indoors or in the open, for all kinds of weather. The material has been thoroughly tested in the most successful camps in the country. Over sixty diagrams and pictures make everything easily understood.

CHESLEY, A. M.

Social Activities for Men and Boys. Cloth *$1.00

A digest of material furnished by men who have done successfully the things they describe. Social events, games, entertainments, etc., all described as a means of attracting and holding men and boys so that they may be led into the fullest and happiest kind of life of body, mind and spirit.

CHESLEY, A. M. and B. H.

Mission Study for Older Boys. Pamphlet .....*.20

For the guidance of leaders conducting mission study classes for older boys, using Eddy's "New Era in Asia."

CLARK, HENRY W.

Philosophy of Christian Experience. Cloth *$1.25

Dr. Clark's primary purpose is not apologetic but explanatory. He aims to promote a clearer comprehension of the content of certain fundamental religious ideas, believing that with a better understanding of these ideas comes a firmer conviction of their reasonableness and the vital conception of religious life as the final and completing chapter of the universal process.

CLARKE, GEORGE.

True Manhood. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

For the "un-get-at-able" man. A tactful yet uncompromising means of approach to the man who is a "good fellow"—but who leaves God out. The chapters deal with sin, steps back to God, a great purpose, etc.

COCKS, O. G.

Engagement and Marriage. (Sex Education Series.) Boards, *.25; pamphlet edition, *$7.50 per hundred, carriage collect.

The practical consideration of marriage as definitely related to social and economic conditions, and therefore requiring certain personal and general knowledge which most young men do not possess. A simple, straightforward discussion of all that marriage involves.

Social Evil and Methods of Treatment. (Sex Education Series.) Boards, *.25; pamphlet edition, *$7.50 per hundred, carriage collect.

Designed for use as a basis and outline for discussion in groups of laymen, such as men's clubs in churches.

COFFIN, HENRY SLOANE.

Christian and the Church. .10; per dozen .....*.80

An earnest appeal to the individual to fulfil his spiritual indebtedness. A summons to Christian endeavor that the Church may include the widest possible differences within a unity of spirit that shall make it function harmoniously and unitedly for its one divine purpose.

COOK, J. W.

(c) †Introduction to Bible Study. Cloth, .25; paper ......15

Designed for the average Bible class student.

CORSAN, G. H.

At Home in the Water. Swimming, Diving, Water Sports, Life Saving. Revised and enlarged. Cloth *$1.00
Linen-lined paper .....*.25

The author has started thousands of men and boys on the way to mastery of the various strokes—under arm, over arm, crawl, etc. Over one hundred practical illustrations are shown.

DAVIS, OZORA S.

Using the Bible in Public Address. Cloth .....*.75

Every layman in Christian work, either as a volunteer or a professional, faces the problems of using Bible material in addresses without such previous preparation as is afforded by a course of theological study. This book is designed to indicate the lines along which such laymen may prepare themselves to become effective and true expositors of the Gospel message. It is arranged so that it may be used as a textbook where desired.

DAVISON, W. J.

Gymnastic Dancing. Cloth *$1.00

Rhythmic exercises for classes of men and boys. Illustrated with half-tones and diagrams. Adopted by the Physical Directors' Society of the Y. M. C. A.

DE PUY-TRAVIS.

DOGGETT-BURR-BALL-COOPER.

(d) †Life Problems. Paper ..... *.25

This series of twenty-four lessons deals with matters closely related to the life of young men, such as social relationships, temptations, livelihood.

McBurney, Robert R. *$1.00

One of the great men in Association history was Robert McBurney, "the leading general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association." His influence was felt in the work far beyond American boundaries. A life story well worth reading.

DRUMMOND, HENRY.

Ideal Life. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

At the time of the first publication of "Ideal Life," Dr. W. Robertson Nicoll in the British Weekly said: "This newly published volume of addresses by Professor Drummond will, we do not hesitate to say, commend itself to many readers, more than any of his other works. There burns throughout them a powerful flame that can illuminate or melt, and we cannot believe that any one can study them carefully and rise from the perusal the same as he was."

EARP, E. L.

Rural Church Movement. Cloth .... *.75

This book shows the need and call for spiritual leadership in rural America, giving the causes for rural church decline and the awakening interest in rural religious and social problems, including specific surveys and definite plans for bettering conditions. A selected bibliography is appended.

EDDY, G. SHERWOOD.

Doubt. .10; per dozen ..... *.80

Practical suggestions for those having intellectual difficulties regarding the Christian faith.

Life and What to Live For. .10; per dozen ..... *.80

Taking the scientific definition of life as adaptation to environment, the author in a straightforward and convincing way shows how a man may make his life right with himself, with God, and with society.

Temptation and How to Meet It. .10; per dozen .....*.80

A powerful, sympathetic message to men who find it hard to live right—a message that reveals our spiritual resources in the fight, and the assurance of victory. In simple, manly fashion the author shows how to develop an evil-resisting character. The argument is peculiarly effective because of the quantity and character of the illustrative material.

EDWARDS, RICHARD HENRY.

Christianity and Amusements. Art leather ..... *.50

"In this long-awaited first book of its kind primary emphasis is placed on a formative ideal, a constructive method and positive program. All dogmatism is thrown aside and an inductive method used throughout. No such systematic and adequate treatment of Christian principles in relation to amusements has been attempted hitherto."—Graham Taylor.

Popular Amusements. Cloth *$1.00

The peculiar value of this volume is attested by its publication in advance as a bulletin of the Extension Division of the University of Wisconsin. Under five classifications and by a unique method the author measures the extent and morals of commercial amusements, and gives practical suggestions, extensive bibliographies and a splendid list of questions for debaters.

EDWARDS-CUTLER.

(d) †Life at Its Best. Art leather .... *.50

The third volume in the College Voluntary Study Courses, designed for first semester sophomore groups. A searching study of the Apostle Paul, not as a theologian but primarily as a man of action.

ELLIOTT-CUTLER.

(c) †Student Standards of Action. Art leather ..... *.50

The first volume in the College Voluntary Study Courses, designed for first semester freshman groups. A frank consideration of twelve outstanding student questions from the viewpoint of Jesus' standards of action. The book looks directly to the life and words of Jesus for a solution of the problems, carefully avoiding the proof-text method.

EVANS, THOMAS ST. CLAIR.

Church at Work in the Universities. Paper ..... *.20

A clear, concise statement of principles and methods in the organization of religious work for students, with particular attention to the large cosmopolitan universities. Based on long experience.

EXNER, M. J., M.D.

Physician's Answer. .15; per dozen, $1.50

An appeal for sexual continence that makes men think. Contains a statement that continence is essential to the highest physical, mental and moral efficiency, and a list of over three hundred prominent physicians who signed it. Highly endorsed by leading educators, and social and religious leaders. Every unmarried man should read this booklet.

Rational Sex Life for Men. Cloth ... *.50

A real dynamic in the fight against sex evils. It gives the true perspective to the whole problem by insisting that men should maintain high sex ideals, not merely because of danger to themselves, but as a solemn duty to womanhood, to posterity and to our whole social system. A book that inspires to purity.

FALCONER, R. A.

(e) †Truth of the Apostolic Gospel. Cloth, *.75; paper ..... *.50

The essence of the gospel is presented in thirty lessons. The book will aid those troubled with doubts to understand the convincing reasons for belief.

FARIS, JOHN T.

(c) †Christian According to Paul. (Everyday Life Series.) Art leather, *.50

Studies in the message of Paul covering a period of thirteen weeks, arranged with daily readings—Scripture printed in full—and a summary of each topic for the week. This volume presents a practical exposition of Paul's idea of the new life according to the plan of Jesus Christ. The comment is right down upon the level of everyday living and is illuminated everywhere by a wealth of apt and telling illustrations. It is a forceful and original treatment of a great theme.

FISKE, G. W.

Boy Life and Self-Government. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth *$1.00

Professor Fiske's published studies and years of actual experience with boys are crystallized in this book. Some of the problems discussed are boy life in the light of the race life, the boy and his instincts, his struggles for character, the epochs of boyhood and youth, clubs for boys, by-laws of boy leadership, the boy's home and the boy's religion.

Challenge of the Country. Cloth ... *.75

"A vital, comprehensive and adequate book. It keeps close to the concrete, is replete with facts, shows a big grasp of the subject, and is well built for text-book use."—Prof. E. A. Ross, University of Wisconsin.

FOSDICK, H. E.

(c) †Manhood of the Master. Art leather ..... *.50

This little volume will lead to a better understanding and deeper appreciation of the Master's character as an individual. The significant events of His life are considered, but only as they illuminate His personality. Arranged for individual use and for Bible study groups.

(c) †Meaning of Prayer. Art leather, *.50; full morocco, gilt edges *$1.50

This vitally helpful book throws much light on God's attitude toward us and our needs. In a vigorous, impressive way, with fine illustrative material, the author considers three phases of prayer: As communion with God; as petition for the things we need; and as the expression of dominant desire. The discussion of obstacles to effective prayer is also very enlightening.

Second Mile. Boards ..... *.40

Whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain, said Christ, and our author deals with the glories of this second mile. It is a book for the person determined to win, a book of inspiration to accept the extra duties, beyond those on the program.

FOSTER, ALLYN K.

Cartoons in Character. Cloth ..... *.50

Sharply drawn pen pictures of well-known human traits of character. The author does not mince words, and his descriptions of Willie Wilts, Kit Kalamity, Toby Tight and more than fifty others are very amusing, but they also incite the reader to take a personal inventory.

FOSTER, E. C.

After Decision—What? Pamphlet, .05; per dozen ..... *.40

A word of fraternal greeting and wise counsel to the young man who has recently become Christ's follower, and who, on the threshold of his opportunities as a Christian, will find especial inspiration in this personal message and its suggestions for his guidance.

At the Forks of the Road. *.05; per dozen ..... *.40

A brief, pointed, friendly word to boys who have reached the place where, consciously or unconsciously, they will make a decision regarding the Christian life. The author shows the attitude which, in fairness, one must take in considering the question, and makes the acceptance of Christ normal and essential in a way that appeals to a boy's heart.

(c) Starting to Teach. Cloth ..... *.40

A book for leaders of boys' Bible classes. Studies in first principles adapted for use in the early stages of teaching. The author is an authority on the conduct of boys' classes.

FOWLER, H. T.

(e) †Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament. Cloth, *.60; paper ..... *.40

This course of Old Testament studies is based upon Job, Proverbs and Ecclesiastes. It deals with the Hebrew attitude toward God in the light of their peculiar problems, and with the application of these teachings to our times.

GEIL, W. E.

Man of Galilee. Cloth, *.50; paper ... *.25

A life of Christ in the very words of Scripture, modified by observations in the Holy Land.

GIBSON, H. W.

Bible Studies for Boys' Camps. .10; per dozen ..... *.80

A supplement to Mr. Gibson's book on camping, planned "to help boys hear the 'sermons in stones' and become better acquainted with God the Creator and Jesus Christ the Saviour and Friend." Twelve lessons and a list of thirty-one suggestive Bible readings.

Boyology. (Boy Life Series.) Cloth, *$1.00

A simple and comprehensive treatment of the subject of boy analysis and boy training. Written out of a long and varied experience for the practical guidance of parents, teachers, and workers with boys.

Camping for Boys. Canvas $1.00

A complete authoritative handbook telling how to select a site, build fires, cook, insure proper sanitation, care for the sick, give first aid to the injured, check up a list of necessary articles, play rainy-day games, etc. Mr. Gibson has written out of a twenty-year experience and some of the chapters have been revised by other experts. Each chapter has a choice bibliography. Illustrations. Bound in canvas and pocket size. Used and recommended by the Boy Scouts.

Services of Worship for Boys. Single copy, *.45, postpaid; *$35.00 per hundred, plus carriage.

Services of music, responses and prayers suited to boys. The author has used similar services in boys' meetings, camps and conferences with remarkable results in dispelling restlessness, and making the work of the speaker effective. The services cover a good number of subjects, and music is provided for all the hymns. There are special sections for out-of-doors and round the camp fire.

GILBERT, PAUL.

Conductor Jim. Cloth .....*.50

The story of Jim Burwick, told in his own words—the account of a wrecked life restored through the grace of God. Though the narrative is rich in laughter and tears, the meaning of it all, the power of God unto salvation, is never lost sight of. An inspiration for men who fear they are "down and out." Pictures of Burwick and his friends.

GILKEY, CHARLES W.

Life That Wins. Art leather .....*.35

With the help of vivid material from Jesus' life this book discusses honor, reverence, purity, temptation, values of life, friendship, service, the all-around life. Second Year, Part I, School Voluntary Study Courses.

GOSS, GEORGE E.

Life Saving. Cloth. Illustrated *$1.00

A complete and effective handbook on the science and art of life saving, with sixty specially posed photographs.

GROVES, ERNEST R.

Moral Sanitation. Cloth ..... *.50

In this book some of the most recently developed principles of modern psychology are made available for the practical worker with men and boys. It is untechnical and preeminently practical, selecting out of the masses of material gathered by modern research such as will be found most useful in guiding the development of character. The book is, from first to last, constructive; it is an endeavor to indicate how moral collapse may be prevented.

GULICK, LUTHER HALSEY.

Dynamic of Love. Cloth ..... *.75

A scientific discussion of the fundamental characteristics of the affectional life of man as they react upon his capacity for achievement and happiness.

Developing Into Manhood. (Sex Education Series.) Boards, *.25; pamphlet edition, *$7.50 per hundred, carriage collect.

This book is designed to answer intelligently and authoritatively the questions which occur to every boy during the period of adolescence. Teachers will find it especially helpful in outlining a more extended and detailed course in eugenics.

From Youth Into Manhood. Cloth... *.50

Teachers, parents, friends and every adolescent boy need a copy of this book. Here are given facts a boy should know about his body and the interpretation of them. Simple rules are added that will enable a boy to care for himself during the critical periods. The sections on diet, exercise, etc., are of incalculable value. Commended by experts.

Life's Beginnings. (SEX EDUCATION SERIES.) Boards, *.25; pamphlet edition, *$7.50 per hundred, carriage collect.

Brief but clear explanations that will enable boys from ten to fourteen years to strive intelligently for the wholesome manhood which is their rightful heritage.

HARLOW, S. R.

Life of H. Roswell Bates. Cloth...*$1.00

The author of this short "Life" knew Roswell Bates from his early years, and presents a satisfying picture of the man as he really was; at work and play; laboring, spending himself for others, giving of his best to "Spring Street," on the lower west side of New York, and going to his rest long before he reached his prime, yet with a great life-work well and nobly done.

HARRIS, FREDERICK M.

Campaign of Friendship. Teacher's edition, *.15. Student's section, *.10; per dozen ..... *.80

This course comprises a series of ten lessons, grouping together passages bearing on some of the important ideas growing out of Jesus' direct appeal for followers. The teacher's edition contains helpful suggestions to leaders on each week's topic.

HARRIS-ROBBINS.

HICKS, H. W.

Rose, Memorial of Horace William. Cloth ..... *.65

A rarely successful student worker. Rose was bright, cheerful, and intense. The story of his brief but promising life is well told here.

HINCKLEY, G. W.

Roughing It with Boys. (BOY LIFE SERIES.) Cloth ..... *.75

Brimful of human interest, these episodes savor delightfully of real camp life where fun-loving nature finds wholesome outlet in purposeful energy and through the significance of commonplace incidents the words "comrade" and "leader" take on new meaning.

Story of Dan McDonald. Cloth, *.25; paper, .05; per dozen ..... *.40

A bright, stimulating story of a real boy, a strong and manly fellow who strove for the highest things.

HOBART, ALVAH S.

Religion for Men. (M. & R. SERIES.) Cloth ..... *.50

"Not only does the author seek to make religion real to the hearts and lives of men, but he presents the subject in such a clear, concise and broadminded manner that it becomes attractive to them."—The Christian Work and Evangelist.

Among other topics it treats of class work in over 100 subjects; 80 or more varieties of clubs; a wide range of subjects and details for lectures and practical talks; libraries and reading-room facilities; advertising; fees; courses of study; equipment; finance and reports. Sections on day work, apprentice schools, teachers, extension work, thrift, supervision, etc. No Association committeeman or paid officer in any capacity can afford to be without this volume.

HOGG, A. G.

(d) †Christ's Message of the Kingdom. Cloth ..... *.80

A little book which penetrates to vital truth and in a most illuminating way interprets the great New Testament conceptions, harmonizing them with the intellectual presuppositions of our own time.

As an incentive to Christian faith and Christian thought it is deserving of close attention.

HOLDEN, J. STUART.

Gospel of the Second Chance. (M. & R. SERIES.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid .... .60

A message to those who, despite honest intent of heart, have somehow failed of the grace of God. It is the author's purpose to emphasize the renewal of opportunity which God offers as the expression of His great mercy—the confidence of a great love. This second chance is our divine assurance that the past need not be unconquerably despotic—that, except for what we have learned in the darkness of bitterness and failure, we really belong to the future, and that at every point of the most conflicting experiences of life the certainty of God's love will be always our great inspiration.

HOOKE, S. H.

Christ and the Kingdom of God. Art leather ..... *.75

This is a personal study of Jesus' life from the viewpoint of the great conflict between His ideals for the kingdom and the national hopes of His kingdom. Thus the study of the Gospel centers round the four great crises in Jesus' life—the temptation, the visit of John's disciples, the confession of Peter, and the crucifixion.

HORNE, C. SILVESTER.

Livingstone, David. (M. & R. SERIES.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

An impressive and altogether satisfying double picture of the sturdy, purposeful, self-forgetting character of the great missionary and explorer, and the conditions faced and overcome in his struggle to open up the dark continent. Brief with the brevity that means wise selection of material, intensity of narration and vivid description.

Life That Is Easy. (M. & R. SERIES.) Cloth ..... *.50

A vivid picture of human nature at its best. The word "easy" is not used as the lazy man uses it. The author presents Christianity as the only method of getting the highest result with no waste of effort or time. It is the easiest way to do hard things.

Relationships of Life. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth ..... *.50

This book deals with applications of the principles laid down in "The Life That is Easy." The Christian World says: "Mr. Horne is a close observer of men and manners and his words ring true to life; his counsel is practical and sensible and his appeals to idealism inspiring." Both books are highly commended as gifts for young men.

HORNE, H. H.

Leadership of Bible Study Groups. Cloth ..... *.50

"This volume is a real contribution to Bible study, not only in colleges, but wherever scholarly work is aimed at."—William D. Murray, Plainfield, N. J.

HORTON, R. F., and Others.

Youth and Life. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth. ..... *.50

Twenty-seven chapters by a score of distinguished authors. The topics cover a pretty complete view of character development. One quotation will serve to give the keynote: "Manliness is a matter of culture rather than fate."

Christianity and the Social Crisis. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, .*.50; postpaid ..... .60

Ray Stannard Baker in his study of religion in America found that this book was more often and more approvingly referred to by religious leaders than any other volume on the same subject.

(d) †Social Principles of Jesus. Art leather ..... *.50

Studies covering twelve weeks. An author who stands preeminent in the field of social Christianity, gives in these vivid studies his conception of the social principles enunciated by Jesus. The treatment is original throughout and marked by a constant reference to the present conditions that Christians are facing. College Voluntary Study Courses. Fourth year, Part I.

REEDER, G. AVERY.

Paul—A Soldier of the Cross. *.15; per dozen, *$1.50; twenty-five or more, *.10 each.

Twelve lessons in the life of Paul, showing his preparation, his call to service, his great work and his final triumph, portrayed in terms of our own daily life and experience in such a way as to lead men to apply the lessons to their personal needs. Stated in the forceful way that demands and receives more than superficial consideration.

RICHARDSON, NORMAN E.

Liquor Problem. Art leather ..... *.50

This handy little text-book, put up in pocket size, marshals all the forces of social, religious and economic facts against one of mankind's greatest enemies. It takes up the baneful effect of liquor upon the home, politics, industry, public schools; upon health and efficiency; upon individual and national life. There are fifteen lessons packed with carefully weighed material.

RITCHIE, FRANK H. T.

Community Work. Cloth ..... *.35

An important handbook on the application of Young Men's Christian Association principles to the uplift of small towns where it is not possible to erect a special building. Useful also in the conduct of extension work in large cities.

ROBERTS, PETER.

Civics for Coming Americans. Paper, *.15

The purpose of this booklet is to put within reach of the foreigner, having a fair command of the English language, such information as is required to pass the examination for naturalization. Also to provide intelligent guidance for those patriots who would gladly help "Coming Americans," but have no knowledge either of the aliens' needs or of the laws regulating the process of naturalization.

English for Coming Americans.[1] Teacher's manual, cloth ..... *.50

A rational system of teaching English to foreigners quickly by calling to mind the familiar incidents of their daily life and showing them how to label each idea with the right word. Prepared after years of study of the methods that have been used. Those who have seen or used the system declare it to be the most practical and effective method ever devised.

SMITH, FRED B.

Man's Religion. Cloth .....*.50

A book of exceptional qualities, giving the impressions of a quarter of a century in the service of the Young Men's Christian Association. "Fred B. Smith was the dynamic leader of the Men and Religion Movement. Little book though it is, it is withal a great book for the modern man—a book to nerve the man who has religion and put a mighty challenge before the man who has not religion."—The Continent.

Men Wanted. Cloth .....*.50

The author, who is well known as "The greatest living Evangelist to Men," and who has for years refused urgent calls from publishers and the public for a book, has at last yielded and written a message in his own vigorous style. After a trip through the cheap lodging houses of the Bowery, Mr. Smith came to this conclusion, "There are too many men in the world." Later he decided that there are not enough of the right kind. His book shows how to get out of the "Too Many" class into the "Not Enough" class. Although much of his work has been getting men started right, he is just as deeply interested in what happens beyond the turning point, as he proves in the chapter, "The Dynamic of Life's Best." It is preeminently a men's book.

SMITH, H. L.

(b) Christian Race. Teacher's edition, cloth, .75; student's pad ......20

A unique course of twenty-four lessons on the Life of Christ, supplemented by twenty-four biographical sketches of men who have "won out," and an equal number of studies of the elements of character that make up the "Christian athlete." The student's pad is incomplete without the larger book, which should be in the hands of the teacher.

SMYTH, J. PATERSON.

Bible in the Making. Cloth .....*.75

There has been long wanting such a book as this, constructive, not destructive; frank and fearless, scholarly and reverent. The story is told in simple, fascinating style that will help anyone puzzled about higher criticism to moor himself more firmly than ever on the impregnable rock of the Scriptures.

SPEER, ROBERT E.

Christian's Habits. Boards .....*.50

How to Deal with Temptation. Boards, .25. Paper, .10; per dozen ...80

Temptation may be a source of either strength or weakness. This stimulating little book helps one to make his temptations a source of strength.

Marks of a Man. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

"Deals with Truth, Purity, Service, Freedom, and Progress. No one is doing more than Mr. Speer to mold the young men of today into noble patterns. This volume is in his best vein."—Interior.

Principles of Jesus. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth, *.50; postpaid ..... .60

Mr. Speer prefers to treat of the practical questions of today rather than of those raised in the sphere of speculative thought. It is this practical Christo-centricism that is destined to carry the Gospel into the heart of the modern social world, as well as into the individual life.

Things That Make a Man. .05; per dozen ......40

SPURGEON, C. H.

Treasury of David. Containing an original exposition of the Book of Psalms; a collection of illustrative extracts from the whole range of literature; a series of homiletical hints upon almost every verse; and a list of writers upon each Psalm. Of these volumes, 164,000 have been sold. New edition from an entirely new set of plates, large clear type, complete in six volumes *$8.00

"The comments and expositions abound in rich, racy, and suggestive remarks, and they have a strong flavour of the homiletic and practical exposition with which Mr. Spurgeon is accustomed to accompany his public reading of Holy Scripture. There is an intensity of belief, a fulness of assent to the great points of Calvinistic orthodoxy which our author would not be true to himself if he attempted to conceal. The brief introductions are very well done, and the abundant apparatus criticus, the list of hundreds of writers on the Psalms, whose meditations have been laid under contribution to enrich the work, render this commentary one of the most voluminous in existence. At all events, the volume will be an encyclopædia of reference."—British Quarterly Review.

SWEET, LOUIS MATTHEWS.

Study of the English Bible. Cloth, *$1.00

Constructive suggestions for acquiring biblical knowledge by studying the Bible itself, rather than books about the Bible. The author goes below all artificial and merely formal processes to a vital way of dealing with word, topic or book. The appendix gives outline studies and much other valuable matter. A book that gives a new vision of the pleasure and profit of Bible study.

THOMAS, W. H. GRIFFITH.

Methods of Bible Study. (M. & R. Series.) Cloth .....*.50

A very direct treatment of the Bible itself as distinct from the mass of discussion about the Bible. It deals with the actual contents of the various groups of books, thus forming an introduction to the Bible as a whole that will make clearer a study of its parts.

THOMPSON, VANCE.

Drink and Be Sober. Cloth *$1.00

"It is as gripping as a play and as correct as a scientific treatise. The argument is searching, thorough and unanswerable, and is impressive because it is fair."—Ex-Governor Foss, of Massachusetts.

TOWNS, CHARLES B.

Injury of Tobacco. $1.50 per hundred, $12.00 per thousand.

An impartial presentation of the harmful and far-reaching effects of the use of tobacco.

TRAWICK, A. M.

City Church and Its Social Mission. Cloth .....*.60

Well-directed suggestions tending to awaken in the city church a larger conscience and more effective recognition of the extent of its opportunity in the leadership of Social Service.

More importance is attached to the discovery of real conditions than to a review of general principles, the author urging that each church should make a special study of its own equipment in relation to the environment for which it is individually responsible.

TRUMBULL, C. G.

(a) †Men Who Dared. Teacher's edition, cloth, *.40; paper, *.25. Student's edition, *.10. A set of sixteen half-tone pictures to illustrate the lessons, *.10 per set. Student's edition and pictures, each, per dozen ..... *.80

Eighteen lessons in Old Testament character study. Teachers will find this an excellent elementary course.

(c) Taking Men Alive. Cloth .....*.50

"Individual Work for Individuals," by Dr. H. C. Trumbull, is a narrative of striking experiences. "Taking Men Alive," by his son, discloses the principles underlying such work. For the individual student or the group. Unconventional, wholesome, and greatly needed.

TRUMBULL, H. C.

How to Deal with Doubts and Doubters. Cloth .....*.65

WARD, HARRY F.

Poverty and Wealth. Art leather ....*.50

Timely, practical, and enlightening studies on the relation of the Church to the great evils resulting from the extremes of wealth and poverty found side by side in modern society. These studies are attractive and compel thought and interest. They are presented in terms of facts, and show the responsibility and opportunity of the individual Christian.

WARD-EDWARDS.

(d) †Christianizing Community Life. Art leather .....*.50

This book aims to help the man who has accepted Jesus' social principles to make them operative in the life of his community. Professor Harry T. Ward of Boston University and Secretary of the Social Commission of the Federal Council of Churches and Mr. R. H. Edwards, Social Service Secretary of the Student Young Men's Christian Association are the joint authors. Prepared from the viewpoint of the ordinary rather than the college community and therefore usable in all adult classes. Fourth Year, Part II, College Voluntary Study Courses.

WARNER, LUCIEN CALVIN.

Personal Memoirs of Lucien Calvin Warner. Cloth *$1.00

Dr. Warner has for many years stood for the highest type of consecrated layman. His reminiscences are full of human interest, tracing the course of a long and useful life through many and varied experiences. Dr. Warner served for a long period as Chairman of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, and his references to the beginnings and development of the movement will be of special interest to all Christian workers.

WEATHERFORD, W. D.

†Introducing Men to Christ. Cloth, *.50

This volume attempts to make clear to men the steps which one takes in entering the Christian life, the results in one's life of becoming a Christian, the fundamental message of Christianity as compared with other religions, and the foundation stones upon which the Christian faith rests. Two chapters study how this message of the Christian life may be passed on to one's friends. Ten studies in the fundamental question of Christian life.

Negro Life in the South. Cloth .....*.50

A well-arranged collection of concrete facts, by an open-minded Southerner who knows the Negro and who knows also what the Negro's white friends need to understand in order to help him. "A distinct addition to the swiftly gathering forces now crystallizing the sentiment of the South into an organized demand for the industrial education of the Negro."—Southern Workman.

Present Forces in Negro Progress. Cloth .....*.50

A fair-minded statement of conditions as they are. Intended to meet the supreme need of the hour for facts rather than theories. Supplemented by an excellent bibliography and index.

Showing the need for able leaders in social service, and the opportunity such service offers for a real profession at a living salary.

Social Needs and the Colleges. ..... .15

The conclusions and practical recommendations of a conference of leaders in Christian social work, met for the purpose of getting an unhurried vision of conditions and their causes, and of considering the need of developing social study and social action among college students in order that they may find their God-given life expression in helping to establish the Christian ideal in the world.

Social Service Message. (M. & R. Movement.) Cloth *$1.00

The practical interpretation of individual and cooperative effort for civic and community betterment and the church's need of vital contact with every part of the community in its effort to bring about a new social order which shall make no distinctions in its universal application of Christian brotherhood.

Thrift Folders. Per hundred ..... .30

From the picture on the first page to the last word, these folders present an irresistible argument for industry and the proper use of money. Splendid for distribution.

Topics and Outlines for Shop Meetings.
Paper .....*.25

Published in response to a demand for suggestive shop talk material. The topics have been thoroughly tested in one of the best shop meeting programs in the country, and they offer many suggestions to the leaders of this aggressive form of Christian work. There is also a helpful discussion of the best methods of advertising such meetings.

Unifying Rural Community Interests.
Cloth *$1.00

Theorizing will not make country life what it should be. The value of this volume is that in its pages experienced men who have faced the actual difficulties tell just why cooperation of rural interests is needed, and give practical plans for a unity of effort that shall overcome the obstacles now retarding rural community progress.

Use of the Bible Among School Boys.
Cloth .....*.60

The report of a unique Conference of Schoolmasters, presenting methods of leading school boys to a deeper interest in and a more intelligent study of the Scriptures.

Was It Worth While? Illustrated.
Cloth .....*.50

The inspiring and deeply interesting life story of Theodore Storrs Lee, missionary to India, who in his short service left a deep impression on the leaders of a Hindu stronghold. Introduction by Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Old Cabin and The Red Shoes. Translated by E. H. Illustrated Boards ..... .25

To be a story teller is something more than an art, it requires genius, or an inborn intellectual power. But in order to tell stories for children — stories not aiming merely at amusing, but at training the child's mind and heart — to tell such stories a person needs something more besides genius, he needs a simple, artless and guileless spirit. This faculty is a rare gift, but Topelius possessed it in an eminent degree, and we are glad to have his stories translated into English and thus made accessible to a larger circle of readers than they could count upon in their original tongue. Only a person who possesses the qualification of a good story-teller will make a good translator of such stories, and Dr. Foss has proved himself qualified for this work.

Each volume is complete in itself, but an opportunity to complete the whole series is here offered, and those who appreciate this kind of literature, should not fail to avail themselves of the opportunity.

VICKNER, EDW. J., PH. D.

A Brief Swedish Grammar. Cloth, net 1.00

Omitting technical details, the merits of Prof. Vickner's new English textbook of the Swedish language may be briefly stated as follows:

A clear and concise presentation of the facts, rules and idioms of the language.

A system of lessons furnishing working material to the student from the start, and dealing with the parts of speech in the order best suited to this purpose.

Exercises plentiful and less rudimentary than in most beginners' books, connected discourse being given preference to detached sentences.

Vocabularies of every day speech voluminous and detailed, with colloquial and idiomatic phrases added.

Lends itself to the conversational method of instruction.

Facilitates acquisition of common phrases and idioms rather than a stock of mere words.

Extra space accorded the treatment of parts of speech offering more than ordinary difficulties, such as the prepositions; while, on the other hand, pronunciation and accent are briefly treated, in view of the fact that the phonetics of the language had best be taught orally, and can be mastered only by constant practice with a teacher.

A LIST OF NEW AND FORTHCOMING BOOKS TO BE PUBLISHED BY RICHARD G. BADGER DURING THE FALL AND WINTER, 1916

THE SITE OF SAINT PAUL'S CATHEDRAL, BOSTON, AND ITS NEIGHBORHOOD

By Robert Means Lawrence, M.D. Large 8 vo, illustrated in photogravure. $3.50 net

In the days when the present Tremont Street was hardly more than a rough cart-road along the eastern edge of the Common, Governor John Leverett owned a lot on the south corner of this road-way and Bannister's Lane, now Winter Street.

This lot was known as Leverett's Pasture, and in the year 1666 it's southerly portion came into the possession of John Wampas, a Nipmuck Indian, who was a somewhat unruly member of the community. From this Indian were derived the titles of all subsequent owners of the property. In the present volume these titles are traced and much information is given regarding the residents of this neighborhood, together with local traditions, and glimpses of life in Boston at different periods.

The illustrations, reproduced in photogravure from old prints, are of unique interest.

GEORGIA AS A PROPRIETARY PROVINCE $2.50 net

By James Ross McCain, Ph.D., Registrar of Agnes Scott College.

This work makes no attempt to tell the full story of Georgia under the Trustees; others have written the general history so fully that there is no need of repetition. Assuming a reasonable knowledge of this history on the part of the reader, the present study attempts to explain in some detail the institutional organization and development of the province. The subjects treated are those which have been almost entirely neglected by the historians of the state. The study has, of necessity, been made almost exclusively from the original sources, and it is believed by the author that no information on this subject has been left untouched. Many of the manuscript materials have never before been available for use by Georgia historians.

THE HISTORY AND PRACTICE OF PSYCHANALYSIS $3.00 net

By Poul Bjerre, M.D. Authorized Translation by Elizabeth N. Barrow.

The aim of this work is to set forth the central idea of psychanalysis as a method of treatment, together with a brief history of the development of this branch of therapy. The author allies himself neither to the Freudian school, nor to any one of its off-shoots. His attitude as a thoroughly independent investigator particularly adapts him to the task of setting forth the basic principles of his subject in its application to therapeutics in such a way that they may be understood not only by the beginner in practice, but by the lay reader whose interest has been awakened in the matter as well. The author's wide experience and comparative freedom from prejudice regarding the different schools that have arisen in conjunction with this subject render him especially fitted for the production of such a work.

SEX WORSHIP AND SYMBOLISM OF PRIMITIVE RACES $3.00 net

By Sanger Brown, II., M.D. With an introduction by James H. Leuba, Professor of Psychology at Bryn Mawr.

To those who are interested in the biological problems of mental evolution this book should be of interest. The life history of a racial motive, i. e., that associated with reproductive instincts, as expressed in sex worship, is described, consisting of an account of its origin, its development and its decadence. The book should be of interest to the student of religion, to the student of racial and individual psychology, but particularly to the psychiatrist, in that the occurrence of certain unhealthy regressive tendencies in racial evolution is compared, biologically, to the occurrence of analogous primitive mental reactions of mental disorders.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO PSYCHO-ANALYSIS $3.00 net

By Dr. S. Ferenczi (Budapest), Medical Advisor to the Hungarian Law Courts. Authorized translation by Ernest Jones, M.D.

An extremely important work by one of the world's leading exponents of psycho-analysis. Contents:

The Analytic Interpretation and Treatment of Psycho-sexual Impotence; Introjection and Transference; The Psychological Analysis of Dreams; On Obscene Words; On the Part Played by Homosexuality in the Pathogenesis of Paranoia; On Onanism; Transitory Symptom-constructions during the Analysis; Stages in the Development of the Sense of Reality; A Little Chanticleer; Symbolism: I. The Symbolic Representation of the Pleasure and the Reality Principles in the Œdipus Myth. II. On Eye Symbolism. III. The Ontogenesis of Symbols; Some Clinical Observations on Paranoia and Paraphrenia; The Nosology of Male Homosexuality (Homo-Erotism); The Ontogenesis of the Interest in Money.

RICHARD G. BADGER .·. PUBLISHER .·. BOSTON

STUDIES IN ANIMAL BEHAVIOR Illustrated. $2.50 net

By S. J. Holmes, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Zoölogy at University of California.

A series of studies of subjects in animal behavior to which the author's own investigations have been devoted for a number of years. How intelligent behavior first took its origin from activities of the purely instinctive type is intelligently considered. Recent investigations on cellular reactions are summarized, and a study of the nature and limitations of simian intelligence is contained in the final chapter on the "Mind of a Monkey." It will be of interest not only to the psychologist and student of animal life, but, owing to its simplicity of style, to the general reader who wishes to know something of the aims and methods of present-day psychology.

CAUSATION AND TREATMENT OF PSYCHOPATHIC MALADIES

By Boris Sidis, M.D. $2.50 net

The volume examines the mechanism, the fundamental source of psychopathic diseases. It gives the key toward the correct understanding of the otherwise obscure phenomena of psychopathic processes. An immense collection of clinical cases is closely investigated. The author lived intimately with the sufferers from psychopathic affections and had the opportunity to study them minutely at close range. The result is the discovery of the fundamental cause of psychopathic maladies. Various methods of treatment are described. These methods tried by other investigators and clinical men have been found successful.

Uniform with Dr. Sidis' other works.

FOUNDATIONS OF NORMAL AND ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY $2.50 net

SYMPTOMATOLOGY, PSYCHOGNOSIS AND DIAGNOSIS OF PSYCHOPATHIC DISEASES $2.50 net

RATIONAL SEX ETHICS $3.50 net

By W. F. Robie, M.D. Sold only to Members of the Medical and Legal Professions.

From an investigation of the sex lives of several hundred normal, right-thinking men and women, also of the sex lives of many neurotics, it is deduced that a more rational and frank sex education for young people, even for most adults, married and single, is necessary.

There are practical chapters on the Art of Love, Intercourse During Pregnancy, the Older Scare Sex Teachings, Modern Scientific Knowledge of Sex, Practical Sociology, Analysis of the Sex Instinct and the application of the knowledge derived from this study to Religion, Health, Education and the Suffrage. Freud's theories are discussed.

GENERAL TYPES OF SUPERIOR MEN $2.50 net

By Osias L. Schwarz.

This work gives us vastly more than can be inferred from the title. The psychology of the various types of superior men is merely the nucleus of the subject from which the author ventures into all regions of human knowledge in order to build up his original philosophy.

One of the most important characteristics of the book is its thorough investigation into our present tendency toward over-specialization, which, taking the form of Capitalism, regards with egotistic unconcern the happiness of the human race.

"This is a splendid and monumental work." — Jack London.

NERVOUS CHILDREN Illustrated. $1.25 net

By Beverley R. Tucker, Professor of Neurology and Psychiatry, Medical College of Virginia.

This book fills an important niche in the literature upon child welfare and gives the reader the foundation upon which further study along special lines can be made. The book while wide and comprehensive in its scope is concise and presents in readable form the condensation of a vast amount of knowledge upon the various subjects dealt with. It embraces, among other things, brief sketches of the anatomy, physiology and psychology of the nervous system and deals with the subject of eugenics, habit, personality, sex development, heredity and environment. The conditions of feeblemindedness, nervousness and mental disturbances in children are especially treated. Illustrations aid in understanding the text, and the style is simple and direct.

MANUAL OF VITAL FUNCTION-TESTING METHODS AND THEIR INTERPRETATION $1.50 net

By Wilfred M. Barton, M.D., Professor of Medicine, Georgetown University.

The great strides which have been made in recent years in all departments of vital function exploration, the discovery of new methods and tests, together with the mass of casuistic and critical literature which has appeared, have rendered it highly important that all this correlated material should be collected together in book form. The object of this book is to give a complete synopsis of all tests of any importance which have been devised for testing the functional capacity of the various vital organs. A work that every man connected with medicine will find of constant use.

Studies in English Literature

A HISTORY OF ENGLISH LITERATURE $1.25 net

By ROBERT H. FLETCHER, Professor of English Literature, Grinnell College.

This book aims to provide a general manual of English Literature for students in colleges and universities and others beyond the high-school age. The first purpose of every such book must be to outline the development of the literature with due regard to national life and to give appreciative interpretation of the work of the most important authors. This volume combines the satisfactory accomplishment of these ends. This manual supplies a systematic statement of the important facts, so that the greater part of the student's time is left free for the study of the literature itself.

ENGLISH ESSAYISTS $1.50 net

By WILLIAM H. DAVIS, Professor of English at Bowdoin College.

Believing that a plodding, matter-of-fact biography is inadequate for a lively appreciation of the works of a great essayist, the compiler of this handbook has presented an account of each of the great writers of the English essay. The book is divided into three principal sections: first, Origin and Early Exponents, in which is included Montaigne, Bacon, Cowley, and the Minor Essayists; second, Eighteenth Century Essayists, Steele, Addison, Dr. Johnson, Goldsmith; and third, Nineteenth Century Essayists, Lamb, Hazlitt, Irving, Hunt, De-Quincey, Carlyle, Macaulay, Newman, Emerson, Thackeray, Ruskin, Arnold and Stevenson.

HAMLET, AN IDEAL PRINCE—And Other Essays in Shakespearean Interpretation. $1.50 net

By ALEXANDER W. CRAWFORD, Professor of English at the University of Manitoba.

We have not yet entirely outlived the eighteenth century notion that Shakespeare is sadly in need of critical revision, though nothing profitable has ever come out of that conception. The author of this illuminating work takes it for granted that Shakespeare, like other great authors, said what he meant, and meant what he said, and grants him the privilege of saying, "What I have written, I have written."

A STUDY OF VIRGIL'S DESCRIPTIONS OF NATURE $1.25 net

By MABEL L. ANDERSON, Professor of English, State University of Wyoming.

This is a study in a new field of investigation for the classics. A study which does not deal with the linguistics of Virgil's style, but rather with the principles of artistry by which he was consciously or unconsciously governed in writing the descriptions of nature found in his various poems. The principles for which the investigation was made are those which are acknowledged and followed by the best descriptive writers of our own time. The work will no doubt interest students of psychology and general modern literature quite as much as it will interest students of classical literature.

THE OLD WIVES' TALE $.60 net

By GEORGE PEEL, Edited by Frank W. Cady, Assistant Professor of English, Middlebury College.

Most editions of Elizabethan plays proceed from the point of view of textual and character criticism. This edition of Peel's Old Wives' Tale makes such a point of view secondary to that of adequate presentation by amateurs. It emphasizes a study of the play from the standpoint of the dramatic purpose which inspired it, and is, indeed, based upon an attempt to bring out this purpose in actual presentation. The introduction endeavors to give an adequate explanation of the dramatic values of the play, and the stage directions are designed to keep them constantly before the imagination of the reader. The book should appeal to those who are interested in any permanent records of dramatic presentations by our colleges, because it is the outcome of a presentation at Middlebury College in 1911.

Library of Educational Methods

EDUCATION AMONG THE JEWS $1.00 net

By PAUL E. KRETZMANN.

An account of Jewish education as it should be known to the average intelligent cultured person, especially to the graduate in education and the teacher in public and private schools, the book is intended also for the earnest parent. It uses the term education in its largest meaning, the sense in which it has again become familiar through the agency of the Montessori system of direct sense-training and the Stoner natural education method, not to speak of the Gary system, in which school-room education is being made subservient to the general training of the child for life.

MOTIVES IN EDUCATION AND OTHER ESSAYS $.75 net

By D. F. K. BERTOLETTE.

These essays deal with ethics, history and forestry. The first is a treatise on the past, present and future of education, and will be of benefit to every student of present day problems.

Human Personality Series

THE PHILOSOPHY OF CONDUCT $1.50 net

By SAMUEL A. MARTIN, Professor of Philosophy, Lafayette College.

This outline of ethical principles is divided into three principal sections: Factors of Conduct, The Principles of Ethics, Personal Ethics. The subject is adequately covered from all standpoints and in an unusually comprehensive and intelligent manner.

AN INDUCTIVE STUDY OF STANDARDS OF RIGHT $1.50 net

By WILSON H. MATTHEW, Professor of Philosophy and Education, Park College.

This book gives a panoramic view of the main activities of living and points out in each of these activities those great moral principles which men have selected to be their guides to correct conduct.

SOCIO-ANTHROPOMETRY $1.00 net

By B. L. STEVENSON.

Socio-Anthropometry is a critique of the popular fallacy of supposing that people inherit their mentality as they do their flesh and blood.

MANHOOD IN ITS AMERICAN TYPE $1.00 net

By MARTYN SUMMERBELL, LL.D., President of Starkey Seminary.

The author contends that the average American in his physical and moral nature has evolved a type which is peculiarly his own. The causes which developed this American type are sought in the conditions surrounding the early colonists, and in their struggle to establish their home in a new land.

Present Day Problems Series

THE YOUNG MAN AND HIS VOCATION $1.25 net

By FRANKLIN STEWART HARRIS, Director of School of Agricultural Engineering and Mechanic Arts, Utah Agricultural College.

A book discussing all vocations open to the young man of to-day, showing the special training needed for each, and the opportunities they offer. The first part takes up each vocation in turn and the second part deals with the relation of the young man to his work. It is a work that no young man can read without being materially benefited in the selection of his life work.

DEMOCRACY AND PEACE $1.00 net

By JAMES BISSETT PRATT, PH.D., Professor of Philosophy, Williams College.

A popular study of certain problems in social psychology and social ethics. It consists of four essays, entitled: "The Meaning of Democracy," "American Idealism," "The Idealism of War," and "The Hope of Lasting Peace." Democracy, it is maintained, is primarily not a matter of government nor of economics, but a moral ideal.

CIVILIZATION AND WOMANHOOD $1.00 net

By HARRIET B. BRADBURY.

This book deals with the Woman Question and its attempted solution in all the greatest civilizations, with the effect upon woman's character of the religious ideas held by the people, and the reaction upon civilization of the elevation or degradation of womanly character and home life. It has suggestions to offer concerning many of our modern social problems, all infused with faith in human nature and in the ultimate triumph of high ideals.

OUR PROGRESS-IDEA AND THE WAR $ .75 net

By GEORGE ROY ELLIOTT, Professor of English, Bowdoin College.

A philosophic study of the nineteenth century literature in relation to the war.

PSYCHO-GYMNASTICS AND SOCIETY DRAMA. Illustrated. $1.00 net

By DELBERT MOYER STALEY, President, AND HELEN C. CULVER, Secretary, College of the Spoken Word, Boston.

Psycho-gymnastics, the first part of this book, deals primarily with actions expressing intelligence. The main object of these gymnastics is to enable the student to have a set of exercises which can be used at any time during spare moments. The second part, devoted to Society Drama, deals with social life as a factor in the business world. The third part, dealing with the question of letter writing, is one of grave importance and requires no little care in the matter of construction and of punctuation.

Library of Religious Thought

MAIN QUESTIONS IN RELIGION $1.00 net
By Willard C. Selleck

This book attempts, within brief compass and in a constructive spirit, a careful examination of some of the principal religious problems which life is continually throwing up to people who think and to those who do not know what to think.

THE BIRTH OF MORMONISM $1.00 net
By John Quincy Adams

A brief, temperate, accurate historical account of the most successful compound of cunning and fraud which the nineteenth century produced. A conclusive array of the facts which expose the utterly unfounded claims of Mormonism to be a Divine religion.

THE CONFLICT OF JESUS $.50 net
By George Shaw

This book is an honest attempt to bring out the true spirit of Christ as revealed in His conflict with the religious parties — especially the Pharisees — of his time. In incident and general teaching the author has tried not to defend Jesus, but to explain Him.

WAS THE RESURRECTION A FACT? $1.00 net
By James Samuel Lilley

Was the Resurrection a Fact? Did the Disciples imagine they saw Jesus after the Crucifixion? Is the doctrine of the Resurrection essential to the Christian religion? What is life? These questions and many others are discussed in the book and the reader will find suggestive help in its perusal.

VISION AND RESTRAINT $1.00 net
By Robert L. Jackson

Here we have an attempt to solve a problem which is engaging the thought of a great many people at the present time, that of securing a greater degree of self-restraint in individual and social life in the modern world. The writer traces the present-day excesses to the lack of spiritual vision.

JESUS' IDEA $1.50 net
By Fordyce Hubbard Argo

A study of those thoughts of Jesus of Nazareth which find expression in the Gospels and in which lie the hope of the individual and society. It treats also His remedy for the ills of the world, touching present-day life at many points.

WHY GOD MADE MEN $1.50 net
By J. Nesbit Wilson

God made men that he might sanctify through them what he had created and made.

THE UNPARDONABLE SIN $1.00 net
By John N. Strain

Whether sin is pardonable or not depends upon the viewpoint. We may call things unpardonable, which with God are pardonable. We will get at the core of this great truth only when we view it as God views it.

SERMON READING Illustrated. $1.00 net
By W. Spooner Smith

Van Oosterzee, in his "Practice of Theology," complains that the History of the Art of Preaching is only for too many "terra incognita." This book is the first history of Sermon Reading. It shows whence and how the practice of sermons in the pulpit has come to be so familiar with us.

A CONFESSION OF FAITH FOR THE AVERAGE CHRISTIAN $1.00 net
By M. R. Fleming

These sermons are for the average member of the church who is not interested in philosophical discussions, nor can take the time to examine numerous Scripture references.

OUR OBLIGATIONS TO THE DAY OF REST AND WORSHIP $1.00 net
By James Patterson Hutchison

A vigorous call for the defense of the Sabbath, showing the physical, economic and moral benefits of the day of rest and worship.

TWILIGHT: THE SIGN OF HIS COMING $ .75 net
By Alexander Mackenzie Lamb

A reverent study of the prophecy of the return of our Lord.

THE ORACLES OF GOD $1.50 net
By Samuel A. Martin, Professor of Philosophy, Lafayette College.

The purpose of this book is to supply the need of a convenient popular introduction to the books of the Old Testament.

COUSIN HUNTING IN SCANDINAVIA Illustrated. $2.00 net

By MARY WILHELMINE WILLIAMS

This book is something new in books of travel. Written by an American of Scandinavian parentage, it reflects the author's personal observations and experiences while on a visit to the ancestral land. The fact that she was a guest in many Scandinavian homes, and had a knowledge of the Scandinavian tongue, enabled the author to write with an unusual degree of intimacy and insight.

PASSACONAWAY IN THE WHITE MOUNTAINS Illustrated. $1.50 net

By CHARLES EDWARD BEALS, JR.

A charming volume for lovers of mountains, depicting the unsurpassed scenery in a secluded nook in the heart of New England's Highlands, written from the viewpoint of human interest. It gives the most comprehensive and vivid account of the New Hampshire Indians now in print.

TENDERFOOT DAYS $1.25 net

By GEORGE R. BIRD

The sketch of real life in "Tenderfoot Days" carries the reader back to the opening of the closed territory of Utah. Then there was no real open door for the "outsider," save as the newcomer, who was a "tenderfoot" in the Mormon or mining vocabulary of the period, put foot down at the entry of Utah and pushed himself in. The book makes good reading for those interested in the pioneer days of the Rocky Mountains, since it shows the trader, the miner and the missionary in their fight for a footing in a new land.

TRAVEL SKETCHES Illustrated. $1.25 net

By GRACE M. LEVINGS

The next best thing to a European trip is to read a good account of one who has recently been there. Mrs. Levings visited several countries of Northern Europe, including Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Russia, Holland and Belgium, and was always keenly alive to the points of interest and humor. The chapter on Russia should be of interest, as Russia is destined to become one of the leading countries of Europe.

EXPRESSION IN SINGING $1.00 net

By H. S. KIRKLAND, Philadelphia Musical Academy.

A plan for the development of individuality in singing. The ideas presented are practical and systematic. The book is something new, the study of emotional concepts and the vocal means by which they are to be manifested.

It is written for the earnest student of singing, and not for the mentally indolent. In encouraging originality of expression, it tends to develop personality. The principal idea in the book is that art is not imitation.

HARMONIC ANALYSIS $1.00 net

By GEORGE F. SCHWARTZ, Assistant Professor of Music at Illinois State University.

This book is intended to meet the needs of the studio, the class-room and the music club. As a supplement to the teacher of applied music it will prove valuable in arousing in the student a more than superficial interest in his work; as a reference and guide-book for the harmony student its usefulness scarcely requires comment.

Contemporary Dramatists Series

MADONNA DIANORA $.75 net

By HUGO VON HOFMANNSTHAL. Translated from the German by Harriet Betty Boas.

"Madonna Dianora" is "Pelleas and Melisande" set to music. Dianora, who loves with a love that is as beautiful as it is fearless, is surprised by her husband as she is about to receive her lover. The scene in which she courageously confronts her husband, knowing for a certainty that he will take her life, is one of those rare supreme moments in dramatic literature.

THE SORCERESS $1.00 net

By VICTORIEN SARDOU. Authorized translation from the French by Charles A. Weissert.

One of Sardou's most famous plays, now for the first time given to English readers. A tragedy in five acts.

American Dramatists Series

SIX ONE-ACT PLAYS $1.00 net
By MARGARET SCOTT OLIVER.
"The Hand of the Prophet," an Arabian play in which the old "dramatic triangle" takes on new force, owing to the peculiarities of the oriental characters and customs. The other plays are equally interesting.

TOLD BY THE GATE $1.00 net
By MALCOLM MORLEY
Six short plays, mostly of a bright and amusing nature.

THE CROWNING $1.00 net
By WILLIAM WILEY SCOTT
An allegory in four acts, showing how Avarice, Greed, Jealousy, Slander and Lie work against Peace, Honor, Love, Mercy and Reason to make War.

CAPTAIN OF THE HOST AND THE SUPREME TEST $1.00 net
By FLORENCE ELISE HYDE
"Captain of the Host" (in three acts) deals with life in a small provincial town. It is the story of a rare soul disclosed through a man's love. The second play, in four acts, is the story of a young girl's strivings to fulfil her literary destiny, and to attain the highest womanhood.

TWO PLAYS (Nothing Else To Do — Caught) $1.00 net
By MORRIS M. TOWNLEY
The first, a play in three acts in which a governor allows his charming and talented daughter to waste her time with nothing to do, and with plenty of money to spend.
"Caught" is a game of wits between a lawyer and a burglar who has come to rob his house.

TEMPTED IN ALL POINTS $1.00 net
By RALPH HALL FERRIS
No literary work of recent years has been the source of such sharp and lively controversy as this play is, because of the daring disregard of mere conventions in the portrait of the Master, because of its unique representation of Jesus as facing in himself the purely human problems of life.

UNDER THE EAGLE
By DOROTHY POTTER $1.00 net
Our people are just awakening to our solemn duty of preparedness against invading foes. How tremendously solemn this duty is you will realize after you have read and pondered upon this strong play. It shows conclusively that "the citizen" and not the "statesman" is really responsible for our present state of unpreparedness.

THE PLAY OF LIFE $1.00 net
By ALTA FLORENCE ARMSTRONG
An unusual and interesting play in seven acts.

THE BLIND CANARY $1.00 net
By JOSEPH KOVEN
A play in one act, depicting an unusual story of the power of suggestion, and exposing the vast superstition that underlies all human nature.

IT CAME TO PASS $1.00 net

The Bible abounds in dramatic situations. In this book six of these have been so developed as to bring the Gospels into closer contact with human life, in the hope that it may lead to a larger meditation of the life which is so abundant in its powers of direction.

WITHIN THE GATES OF YILDIZ $1.25 net
By JULIEN L. BRODÉ
A play in five acts portraying the late revolution in Turkey, which resulted in the dethronement of Abdul Hamid, and placed the government in the hands of the present young Turk party. An interesting and stirring love theme runs through the story.

JEPTHA'S DAUGHTER $1.00 net
By JAMES MONROE CROMER
A play in five acts founded on one of the most beautiful as well as pathetic of the old Bible stories. It is a simple and practical study of those deeply religious elements and traits of character which produced from a nation of slaves one of the most dominant peoples of the world.

KING SAINT OLAF $1.00 net
By GUSTAV MELBY
This play deals with the struggle between paganism and Christianity in Norway during the early part of the eleventh century, and shows how the tragedy of King Olaf's life led to the Christianizing of the Norsemen.

Four Vital Books

MAN, THE LIFE FREE $1.25 net
THOUGHT FOR HELP, For those Who Know Men's Needs. $1.50 net
WILL HIGHER OF GOD, And Free Will of Life Made. $1.00 net
MAN'S LIFE OF PURPOSE $1.25 net

By William C. Comstock, Amanuensis. With a foreword by Rev. Joseph A. Milburn, Pastor Plymouth Congregational Church, Chicago. The set of 4 volumes for $4.00 net

These books are not merely a curiosity of psychical experience, to be glanced at and forgotten, but are actual transcriptions, in their own words, of the faith of those in the wider life that is freed from earth, and of their wider view of the man's life in its relation to its Maker and to the whole life of the immortal self.

They are remarkable, not only for their subject matter but also for their authorship. The author is really not the author. He is only a conscious medium of transmission. Celestial intelligences speak through the amanuensis of these extraordinary books — as they spoke through St. Paul and St. John. These volumes give dignity to the faith of spiritism. Every communication that comes to us through the transmissive talent of this author is an appeal to our highest nature, to the most serious and searching thought. It is spiritism on the plane of metaphysics. It is spiritism clothed with highest reason, confronting and essaying to solve problems that have haunted the mind of man since man first became conscious of his relationship to the Eternal.

HOW ONE CHURCH WENT THROUGH A WAR $1.00 net

By W. Spooner Smith

These sermons, preached by the late Rev. W. Spooner Smith to his congregation at Guilford, Conn., during the Civil War, trace the course of the war, beginning with the dark foreboding of the congregation in '61, and finally ending in a note of glorious triumph in '65. This book was written because it was thought that words written at the time might preserve some sense of that vital four years of crisis to a generation that can learn of it only from its fathers.

THREE THINGS EVERY BOY MUST HAVE $.75 net

By Charles S. Lyles

What are the three things every boy must have? This cannot be guessed by one person in ten thousand. But after you read this book you will say with every one who has read it: "That is exactly what should be given to every boy." The illustrations are so real, and the words used so pleasing, that you see what is being read and you bless the writer for just what he has said. It is a splendid book for parent and child.

TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS OF INTERESTING EXPERIENCE $1.35 net

LITTLE FOLKS PLAYS OF AMERICAN HEROES

By Mary Hazelton Wade, Author of "The Little Cousin Books"

Children are natural actors. In their hours of play they impersonate the characters of the people around them. Christenings and weddings, funerals and festivals are enacted as vividly as the scanty knowledge of the young minds makes possible. Every act of every little mother toward her doll is a reality for the time being. Because of this faculty for imitation, plays are the best possible means by which young minds can absorb into their natures the qualities which have made other people great.

This series has been written with this purpose in view. In simple form, and presenting the heroes in successive periods of development, it enables the child to read and act out their lives at one and the same time, entering into the great men's thoughts and feelings as they conquer every obstacle and become at last "great."

The lives of the heroes as given in this series are intended to supplement the play and furnish the facts needed to make a complete picture in the child's mind of what great men have done.

This series will be of especial value in the classroom, where it may be used as a reading, at the same time giving opportunity for the children's dramatic instinct to be exercised naturally.

The following volumes are Now Ready; Others in Preparation:

POET LORE

POET LORE is the oldest and largest review in the English language devoted to poetry and drama. In its pages appear the best work of the world's greatest writers, and for twenty-five years it has been an active pioneer in promoting an interest in international letters. Maeterlinck, Hauptmann, Sudermann, Schnitzler, D'Annunzio, Gorki, Andreyev, Bjornson and Synge are among those POET LORE has introduced to the American public.

"Those who love the best in poetry and drama will find in POET LORE a literary feast."—The Pittsburg Post.

"It is a most excellent indication of the genuine love of high literature that the editors have been able to bring together so many distinct contributions of a suggestive and critical character. There is a freshness about the work which is inspiriting, and the study is of that which is worth while, not the tiresome praise of the second rate.— Atlantic Monthly.

"A periodical that stands steadfastly for good literature, and for the value of poetry in all walks of life."— The Dial.

THE JOURNAL OF ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY

THE JOURNAL OF ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY stands as the representative of the scientific study of the abnormal phases of mind. It publishes the researches and practical conclusions of the most eminent representatives in this branch of study. To those who desire more than a vague general and more or less unreliable account of the present position and attainments of abnormal or medical psychology THE JOURNAL OF ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY is the only source available. As official organ of the American Psychopathological Association and the British Psycho-Medical Society, its standing and authority are assured.

School Bulletin Publications

I BY SUBJECTS

II AUTHOR AND SUBJECT IN ONE ALPHABET

NOTE.—The figure at the left gives the page of the catalogue in the Trade List of 1908, where the book will be found most fully described. Binding is indicated as follows: M. morocco, ½ M half morocco, B boards, C cloth, ½ l half leather, M manilla, P paper. Size as follows: 8:416 indicates 8*vo*, pp. 416; 12:393 indicates 12*mo*, pp 393; 16:380 indicates 16*mo*, pp. 389. Books preceded by a dagger (†) have been selected by the Education Department for the New York Teachers' Library. Books preceded by (T) have been specified for instruction in New York training classes.

Books starred may be had also in paper binding, at half the cloth price. Unless expressly ordered to be sent in this binding, such volumes are always sent in cloth. Books marked net are sent by mail only with additional charge of one-tenth for postage.

It is no longer practicable to send out complete catalogues of The School Bulletin Publications, as they have become too large. Instead we now publish partial catalogues on special subjects, or for special schools, which so far as issued are as follows. Any sent free on request.
